Orient In A Mirror:

The Orient in a Mirror Roland Michaud, Sabrina Michaud, 2003 Central Asia is a vibrant mixture of civilizations and tongues united by Islam diversified by differing histories cultures and languages Iran Turkey and Afghanistan and their neighbours are famed for their literature and their multi hued arts and crafts but few realize how alive how close to the surface are their powerful and enduring traditions Sabrina Michaud with reproductions of 14th to 19th century central Asian miniatures The two art forms enhance one another providing a multifaceted insight into the glories of the region from glimpses of students and solemn mullahs to Afghan horsemen in a plethora of exotic beauty and colour print It is now republished in a revised and expanded form with twice as many images Mirror of the Orient Roland Michaud, Sabrina Michaud, 1981-01-01

Marx and Weber on Oriental Societies Lutfi Sunar, 2016-05-06 The Orient was central to the work of Marx and Weber both figures building their theories around the question of why modernity appeared to emerge only in the West While Marx's account focused on the accumulation of capital in the West Weber's explanation for this phenomenon centred on Western rationalization Extending recent work comparing the social theories of Marx and Weber this book examines their approaches to Oriental societies showing how in spite of the differences in their respective theorizations of the historical and political development of the West their work on the form of modern society in the Orient converges each complementing the other Fully conversant with recent scholarly work on Marx and Weber this comprehensive re-examination of the points of convergence and departure in their work requires us to re-evaluate both their positions in the history of sociology and their relevance to contemporary social questions As such it will appeal to scholars of social and political theory and classical sociology

The Play of Mirrors Sylvia Caiuby Novaes, 2010-06-28 Focusing on the Bororo people of west central Brazil this book addresses the construction of self identity through interethnic interaction By presenting the images the Bororo have of themselves as well as the images of others who have interacted with them Brazilian anthropologist Sylvia Caiuby Novaes argues convincingly that Bororo self images are constructed with the aid of a peculiar looking glass it is in the images of others that they see themselves Incorporating contributions from psychology psychoanalysis linguistics and semiotics Play of Mirrors focuses on symbols images discourse and meanings rather than solely on the problem of acculturation It thus reflects the thinking of a new generation of Brazilian anthropologists who have shifted their focus from native communities as isolated entities to an examination of their embeddedness within broader national and international arenas

Reflecting Mirrors, East and West: Transcultural Comparisons of Advice

Literature for Rulers (8th - 13th century) Enrico Boccaccini, 2021-11-15 In Reflecting Mirrors East and West Enrico Boccaccini sheds new light on Mirrors for Princes the pre-modern genre of advice literature for rulers A popular genre in the societies that emerged from the Late Antique oecumene Mirrors for Princes are considered here for the first time as a transcultural phenomenon that challenges the dichotomy of the Orient and the Occident Traditionally the historiographic tradition has viewed European and Middle Eastern Mirrors as distinct and incommensurable Analyzing the contents and discourses in four Mirrors ostensibly separated by space time and language Enrico Boccaccini convincingly draws out the surprising continuities between these texts while also showing how they are embedded in their own historical literary and political context
