My City Different Betty E. Bauer, 2012-03-15 Santa Fe is known as The City Different But not just because of its beautiful scenery its rich traditions or historical heritage I think it s the people those wonderful individuals whose proclivities have labeled them a little the other side of center and who have added the spice to the life I enjoyed there for so many years I hope the reader will enjoy some of my memories With that Betty Bauer turns us loose to ponder over why streakers never bothered to streak in Santa Fe why one prominent publisher found solace in the lid of an ornate cigarette box and how Santa Feans solve the problem of trees standing in the way of building sites Did you know that one restaurant owner attracted customers by having a full grown bobcat prowl the premises Or that Santa Feans still have a yearly celebration that started in 1712 and includes the burning of a thirty foot dummy What about the five nuts in adobe huts Not to mention the mysterious and color coded worshipers of St Germain or what happened when a zealous cop insisted a local landscaper s station wagon was filled with marijuana plants One man even had a dream of building a major opera house just outside of town It s all here fifty years spent in soaking up everything that truly makes Santa Fe The City Different BETTY E BAUER arrived in Santa Fe in 1948 and lived there from 1953 to 2000 She and her partner Marian F Love founded and published The Santa Fean Magazine from 1972 to 1994 She was very active in civic municipal and cultural pursuits having served as the first woman President of the Santa Fe Press Club now defunct the first woman President now Chairman of the Board of the Santa Fe Chamber of Commerce and President of the Santa Fe Festival of the Arts as well as on numerous civic and municipal committees Santa Fe with Kids from A to Z Mary Catherine Mathews, Kelsey Daly, 2005 An alphabetical guide to Santa Fe New Mexico includes family friendly things to see and do in the city including listings for places to stay and eat
