It Happened in Nebraska Tammy Partsch,2019 From the organization of the first Arbor Day to the invention of Kool Aid It Happened in Nebraska features thirty six events from the history of the Cornhusker State    Nebraska Stories David H. Hoover,Marvin Van Kekerix,Nebraska. State Department of Education,1977    History and Stories of Nebraska Addison Erwin Sheldon,1926    History and Stories of Nebraska Addison Erwin Sheldon,2015-06-26 Excerpt from History and Stories of Nebraska Stories are the harp strings of history transforming the past into melody and rhythm The best stories live forever in the human mind They greet us in the Latin Teutonic and Celtic tongues surprise us in the ancient Greek Arabic and Hindoo literature and astonish us in the rude folk tales of primitive peoples who have no written language The demand for a good story is as wide as unsatisfied as human longing and the search for a new one as difficult and elusive as the discovery of a new element in nature Stories are the inspiration of patriotism and of home virtues No land is loved without its place tales and no nation became great without the lift of noble examples and ideals in the stories of its common people Every hill and mountain must find its hero every vale and prairie its legend ere it becomes invested with living human interest With the flight of years the deeds of pioneers in a new land are transformed into the hero tales and place legends of the later generations It is well that in the process what is brave generous and strong survives what is common mean and trivial perishes In Nebraska the pioneer period is just past The pioneers are with us still Men yet live who knew these prairies as a sea of grass wherein appeared no island of human habitation We have yet with us those who hunted deer and buffalo on the sites of our cities who followed the overland trails and faced hostile Indians where now extend fruitful fields of com wheat and alfalfa Children born in sod houses dugouts and even in emigrant wagons now direct the affairs of our commonwealth The pioneer days are past but their witnesses are in our midst About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works    History and Stories of Nebraska Addison Erwin Sheldon,1922    Connected Histories Eva Pfanzelter,Dirk Rupnow,Éva Kovács,Marianne Windsperger,2024-09-23 The World Wide Web WWW and digitisation have become important sites and tools for the history of the Holocaust and its commemoration Today some memory institutions use the Internet at a high professional level as a venue for self presentation and as a forum for the discussion of Holocaust related topics for potentially international transcultural and interdisciplinary user groups At the same time it is not always the established institutions that utilise the technical possibilities and potential of the Internet to the maximum Creative and sometimes controversial new forms of storytelling of the Holocaust or more traditional ways of remembering the genocide presented in a new way with digital media often come from people or groups who are not in the realm of influence of the large memorial sites museums and archives Such private stagings have experienced a particular upswing since the boom of social media This democratisation of Holocaust memory and history is crucial though it is as yet undecided how much it will ultimately reinforce old structures and cultural regional or other inequalities or reinvent them The Digital space as an arbitrary and limitless archive for the mediation of the Holocaust spanning from Russia to Brazil is at the centre of the essays collected in this volume This space is also considered as a forum for negotiation a meeting place and a battleground for generations and stories and as such offers the opportunity to reconsider the transgenerational transmission of trauma family histories and communication Here it becomes evident there are new societal intentions and decision making structures that exceed the capabilities of traditional mass media and thrive on the participation of a broad public
