Nebula Express:

Godonism Theo Von Cezar, 2010-10-12 The story starts with friends Ahma and Jovian who like most humans have fallen on terrible luck. There's nothing special about these two or humanity in general. The dystopian grey world the men live in is held tightly in the grip of overpopulation. People are subsisting and not much more. The friends have nothing to look forward to until they happen to find the Church of All Nonbelievers. What's the guiding principle of this somewhat sacrilegious institution? As the book states: GOD IS NOT INDEBTED TO THE UNIVERSE AND TIME WE ARE INDEBTED TO OUR GOD. Enter a paranormal being who offers Ahma and Jovian the chance to rise above their meager existence. The offer comes with a warning: Should the two mess up the opportunity they'll bring their own ruination. The story leads the friends down a winding path that is one half The Matrix and another half Heresy. In the end the men find out their ties run deeper than ever thought: the government's guiding hand in their lives more invasive and the lines between religion and science so completely blurred that both begin to look like futuristic psychology.

Nebula Express John Argo, 2016-12-11 DarkSF is the Dark Chocolate of Science Fiction we are told by John Argo, a pioneer in digital publishing since 1996. If you love DarkSF movies like Blade Runner, Dark City, Chrysalis or Alien, then Nebula Express is yet another classic for you, along with his Monopol City, Robinson Crusoe 1 000 000 A.D., Streamliners and others. Nebula Express (John Argo, 2003) is a DarkSF novel based on a terrifying premise: What if we aren't who we think we are? What if our memories, our loved ones, our hopes and dreams are all just smoke? Think of the replicants in Blade Runner. This novel puts a unique twist on a gripping idea. As always, John Argo offers a rousing cinematic tale for the brave of heart, yet he leavens it with a touching love story and, yes, there is HEA at the end. If the beginning reminds you of Ridley Scott's classic movie Alien, that's the author's intention as homage to his favorite director. But the similarities end. All writers worth their salt tap into the archetypal sources visited by their predecessors: Virgil borrowed from Homer, Shakespeare from Boccaccio, Dante from Virgil, and so on. Nobody owns these tropes. It just takes a craftsman and an artist to really know how to tap into that good stuff. That's why we make some of the best dark chocolate. DarkSF in the SF world? Try Nebula Express. You'll be hooked. There are indeed scary creatures on board as many as there are dark mysteries. And it's claustrophobic by design. But the scariest secrets are those buried in our souls. Ridge and Brenna share a mysterious love that transcends their understanding until they figure out the deadly secret of the derelict starship called Nebula Express in which they are trapped and doomed unless they can engineer a miracle to save themselves. The dark chocolate metaphor is delicious and explains much if you like fresh, original, richly dark literature which is what most serious writing is anyway: drawing upon Aristotle's distinctions thousands of years ago between serious tragic art and comedic melodramatic art. More info at www.darksf.com for readers who may be interested. This isn't fast food reading. To extend the metaphor: if you seek a fine restaurant to order a unique and original creation complete with steak, violins, linen and a rose in a vase, this is your cup of dark espresso. By contrast, the milk chocolate or fast food metaphor describes often warmed over.

genres which work as a formulaic escape or narcotic There is a place for everything this just isn't that place We're mixing metaphors a bit but it all goes down smoothly DarkSF is rich dark chocolate for connoisseurs Let's be clear DarkSF is not necessarily scary gory violent or any of the things that scare off milk chocolate bunnies One finds plenty of speculative fiction as well as gore and horror in Homer Virgil Dante Defoe or any of the memorable serious and enduring modern writers Homer's Iliad is a slasher tale for sure Think of the ending of Homer's Odyssey or Shakespeare's Hamlet each ending in a massive sword fight and blood bath So what is the core principle of DarkSF As with all poetry it's writing for its own sake for the beauty of the words and ideas and how they are expressed That's why those great movies Blade Runner Body Snatchers Fifth Element or novels Lord of the Flies 1984 Brave New World linger in memory All serious literature is dark in the sense that Aristotle meant as opposed to comedy melodrama fluff that goes in one ear and out the other Milk chocolate readers simply want escape sugar a narcotic a few hours of relief That's fine We all do sometimes This stuff is the heavy cream pungent espresso red wine dark bittersweet chocolate expensive brandy Please do visit www.darksf.com Meanwhile if it's your cup of dark chocolate hope you enjoy Nebula Express and see you in Monopol City another of John Argo's DarkSF novels

Nebula Express John Argo, 2014-08-30 Never before has a ship so far from home been in so much trouble Hurting through space and time like a blur starship Nebula Express gives truth to a darkly bright motto out of a nightmare Nothing seems right near the speed of light Not the ship not the mission nor its people especially not Ridge and Brenna who are drawn to each other with a deep passion that defies the deadly madness all around yet their love too is a symptom of all that's wrong aboard Nebula Express It is a saga in the tradition of Ridley Scott's movie Alien yet scarier more thoughtful a heart stopping romantic story amid the terror chaos and horror of a ship gone mad The six person engineering crew aboard the starship awaken to a normal morning in the crew quarters aboard a solar system cargo ship named Neptune Express on a two year mission to the blue gas giant that will allow each to retire wealthy They enjoy breakfast banter and email home across the vast emptiness of space But Earth isn't answering And the captain is nowhere to be found When Ridge Brenna and the other four specialists open the hatch to enter the huge ship they discover to their horror that nothing is what they thought it would be not the ship not the mission not the engineers themselves in a heart rending ultimate discovery for each man and woman that is sure to send cold chills through the reader You will not want to miss this unique twist that takes horror to its ultimate personal peak It's a plot twist no writer has ever done before Be prepared to keep lights on all night Take a deep breath take a long walk around the house in the dark check doors and windows and look in the mirror to see who or what is looking back at you Mystery upon mystery compound the terror as the crew find themselves inside an ancient wrecked starship Then bodies begin turning up along with zombie like Mudmen or Cleaners who hunt both the living and the dead seeking body parts and food Then the dying begins One by one the engineers fall prey to a strange illness Not only is everything frighteningly wrong but one by one each realizes the most horrific truth of all about him or herself Ridge a strong handsome Chief Engineer and lovely red headed Brenna Senior Engineer have families back on Earth whom they love very much And yet they find themselves drawn into a passionate overwhelming love that neither sought but they cannot resist or understand Somewhere in the rusting dripping ghost ridden bowels of this enormous city flying through the distant galaxy is a magical place called Largo where answers and help can be found Ridge and Brenna must find Largo before it's too late as the clock ticks Largo itself is only a keyhole leading to either human extinction or a New Earth that is humankind's only shred of hope If the two lovers cannot defeat the ship and its monsters both external and internal to themselves they will never know as a ghastly array of long dead mummified officers on the bridge sails Nebula Express to her ultimate destiny amid distant stars
