Necessity Poems:

The Necessity of Wildfire Caitlin Scarano, 2022-04-05 Winner of the Wren Poetry Prize selected by final judge Ada Lim n Caitlin Scarano s second full length collection is The Necessity of Wildfire It begins To not harm each other is not enough I want to love you so much that you have no before These poems chase a singular thorny question how does where and who we came from shape who and how we love Judge Ada Lim n says the resulting collection is hungry clear eyed tough and generous Though originally from the South Scarano s imagination is galvanized by the Pacific Northwest floods and wildfires the Salish Sea and the North Cascades and the humans and animals whose lives intersect and collide there In this collection Scarano reckons with a legacy of violence on both sides of her family the death of her estranged father the unraveling of two long term relationships the complexity of sexuality and her decision not to have children With fierce lyricality these poems stories without monsters stories without morals resist both redemption and blame yet call in mercy

The World's Best Poetry: Descriptive poems; narrative poems Bliss Carman, 1904 Shelley's Major Poetry Carlos Baker, 2015-12-08 Professor Baker is concerned primarily with Shelley s development ns a philosophical and psychological poet and it is precisely in this that the great achievement of the book lies Originally published in 1966 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

The Poem Electric Seth Perlow, 2018-12-18 An enlightening examination of the relationship between poetry and the information technologies increasingly used to read and write it Many poets and their readers believe poetry helps us escape straightforward logical ways of thinking But what happens when poems confront the extraordinarily rational information technologies that are everywhere in the academy not to mention everyday life Examining a broad array of electronics including the radio telephone tape recorder Cold War era computers and modern day web browsers Seth Perlow considers how these technologies transform poems that we don t normally consider digital From fetishistic attachments to digital images of Emily Dickinson s manuscripts to Jackson Mac Low s appropriation of a huge book of random numbers originally used to design thermonuclear weapons these investigations take Perlow through a revealingly eclectic array of work offering both exciting new voices and reevaluations of poets we thought we knew With close readings of Gertrude Stein Frank O Hara Amiri Baraka and many others The Poem Electric constructs a distinctive lineage of experimental writers from the 1860s to today Ultimately Perlow mounts an important investigation into how electronic media allows us to distinguish poetic thought from rationalism Posing a necessary challenge to the privilege of information in the digital humanities The Poem Electric develops new ways of reading poetry alongside and against the electronic equipment that is now ubiquitous in our world
