Shah,2009-03-24 Named one of Time magazine's Ten Best Books of the Year Tahir Shah's The Caliph's House was hailed by critics and compared to such travel classics as A Year in Provence and Under the Tuscan Sun Now Shah takes us deeper into the real Casablanca to uncover mysteries hidden for centuries from Western eyes In this entertaining jewel of a book Tahir Shah sets off across Morocco on a bold new adventure worthy of the mythical Arabian Nights As he wends his way through the labyrinthine medinas of Fez and Marrakech traverses the Sahara sands and samples the hospitality of ordinary Moroccans Tahir collects a dazzling treasury of traditional wisdom stories gleaned from the heritage of A Thousand and One Nights which open the doors to layers of culture most visitors hardly realize exist From master masons who labor only at night to Sufi wise men who write for soap operas In Arabian Nights takes us on an unforgettable offbeat and utterly enchanted journey

Venture Into Cultures Olga R. Kuharets,2001-05 Contains a resource book of multicultural materials and includes program ideas Web sites and recommended children's books that provide students with information on the traditions stories pictures and music from around the world

Multicultural Picturebooks Sylvia S. Marantz,Kenneth A. Marantz,2005 Picturebook spelled as a single word to identify its unique qualities and to differentiate the genre from other books with illustrations is one that tells a story either in pictures alone or in almost equal partnership with text The picturebook has great potential for bridging the differences among us the concept of a story is one common to all a shared experience that sets the stage for communication And the goal of multiculturalism is to emphasize the positive attributes of human society the outstanding rather than the stereotype Because children born today will interact with people from different cultures much more than previous generations it is important that they are taught about other cultures starting at a young age Multicultural picturebooks are therefore an excellent teaching tool for meeting this educational challenge The picturebooks profiled are appropriate for children in grades K 4 but can be used with older children depending on the curriculum and the students comprehension level Books covering Asia and the Pacific The Middle East Africa South America North America Native Americas Inuit etc and books specific to the immigrant experience are profiled Each book is described in one paragraph that includes an engaging review of the story line special features of the content the look and style of the artwork interior design and layout of the book The authors emphasize that the visual qualities of picturebooks affect their ability to tell stories about people whose values and behaviors are different from those of the reader The analyses therefore used in selecting the books include not only the informational content but also the emotional content the feelings generated by the text and art In choosing books for this volume the authors have used the following criteria Does the book tell an engaging story Do the illustrations convincingly portray and represent humans animals and objects Is the use of the media consistent Do the text and the pi

The Storyteller's Sourcebook Margaret Read MacDonald,Brian W. Sturm,2001 The first edition provides descriptions of folktales and references to more than 700 published sources of folktales The new edition covers folktales from 1983 1999 Both editions include thorough indexing by subject motif title ethnic group and country of origin and a comprehensive bibliography      The Silly Chicken Idries Shah,2000 A chicken that has learned to speak as people do spreads an alarming warning and the townspeople panic without first considering the messenger Based on a Sufi teaching tale      Best Books for Children Catherine Barr,2006 Contains more than 25 000 titles of books recommended for children in grades K 6      The World of Islam in Literature for Youth Rajinder Garcha,Patricia Yates Russell,2006-01-24 The World of Islam in Literature for Youth will aid librarians parents students teachers school media specialists and other readers who are interested in identifying helpful resources on the topic of Islam and the Muslim culture Divided into 16 chapters that reflect the different aspects of Islam and the Muslim culture this annotated bibliography covers more than 700 books instructional materials videos DVDs audio tapes and online resources each with a complete bibliographical description title author s name place of publication publisher year number of pages and ISBN both for hard copy and paper if available and recommended grade levels Digital electronic resources in addition to the above bibliographic description also include length of running time producer and whether in black white or color The authors wrote this book with the goal of making available reliable information about this often misunderstood religious tradition Many of the resources emphasized are not typically featured in existing bibliographies databases and libraries Author title grade subject and illustrator photographer indexes are included This valuable reference tool provides educators with a means to easily identify resources for use in promoting the understanding of Islam      Teaching Reading in Today's Middle Schools Betty D. Roe,Sandy H. Smith,2004-10 This text combines a research based approach to reading instruction with the theories issues and strategies most relevant to prospective middle school teachers The authors promote a balanced approach to literacy instruction that includes active learning cooperative learning and critical thinking strategies These strategies and their applications empower teachers to become key decision makers in their students literacy programs      Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1998-04
