Nelvana Story:

The Nelvana Story Daniel Stoffman, 2001      The Canadian Horror Film Gina Freitag, André Loiselle, 2015-01-01 From the cheaply made tax shelter films of the 1970s to the latest wave of contemporary eco horror Canadian horror cinema has rarely received much critical attention Gina Freitag and Andr Loiselle rectify that situation in The Canadian Horror Film with a series of thought provoking reflections on Canada's terror of the soul a wasteland of docile damnation and prosaic pestilence where savage beasts and mad scientists rub elbows with pasty suburbanites grumpy seamen and baby faced porn stars Featuring chapters on Pontypool Ginger Snaps 1970s slasher films Quebec horror and the work of David Cronenberg among many others The Canadian Horror Film unearths the terrors hidden in the recesses of the Canadian psyche It examines the highlights of more than a century of Canadian horror filmmaking and includes an extensive filmography to guide both scholars and enthusiasts alike through this treacherous terrain      Animation Nation Michael Hirsh, 2024-06-25 In 1978 an obscure animated TV show produced by an upstart Toronto firm caught the eye of the world's hottest filmmaker George Lucas He was looking for someone to produce an animated short for a CBS Star Wars television special The ensuing collaboration not only put Nelvana on its path to becoming the world's leading independent animation company but kickstarted Canada's most successful creative industry children's animated entertainment Born in Belgium raised in Toronto and New York Michael Hirsh was a co founder and CEO of Nelvana and the driving force behind Canada's animation dominance Animation Nation is his behind the scenes account of working with such famous cartoon franchises as Babar The Adventures of Tintin Berenstain Bears Franklin The Magic School Bus and Beetlejuice and larger than life personalities including Roseanne Barr Mr T Deborah Harry and Tim Burton Packed with humour and hard won wisdom Animation Nation is a frame by frame account of how creative talent and entrepreneurial zeal built a global cartoon empire      Graphic Indigeneity Frederick Luis Aldama, 2020-06-04 Honorable Mention Recipient for the Comics Studies Society Prize for Edited Book Collection Contributions by Joshua T Anderson Chad A Barbour Susan Bernardin Mike Borkent Jeremy M Carnes Philip Cass Jordan Clapper James J Donahue Dennin Ellis Jessica Fontaine Jonathan Ford Lee Francis IV Enrique Garc a Javier Garc a Liendo Brenna Clarke Gray Brian Montes Arij Ouweneel Kevin Patrick Candida Rifkind Jessica Rutherford and Jorge Santos Cultural works by and about Indigenous identities histories and experiences circulate far and wide However not all films animation television shows and comic books lead to a nuanced understanding of Indigenous realities Acclaimed comics scholar Frederick Luis Aldama shines light on how mainstream comics have clumsily distilled and reconstructed Indigenous identities and experiences He and contributors emphasize how Indigenous comic artists are themselves clearing new visual verbal narrative spaces for articulating more complex histories cultures experiences and narratives of self To that end Aldama brings together scholarship that explores both the representation and misrepresentation of Indigenous subjects and experiences as well as research that analyzes and highlights the extraordinary work of Indigenous comic artists Among others the book examines Daniel Parada's Zotz Puerto Rican comics Turey el Ta no and La Borinque a and Moonshot The Indigenous Comics Collection This volume's wide armed embrace of comics by and about Indigenous peoples of the Americas and Australasia is a first step to understanding how the histories of colonial and imperial domination connect the violent wounds that still haunt across continents Aldama and contributors resound this message Indigeneity in comics is an important powerful force within our visual verbal narrative arts writ large Ages of Heroes, Eras of Men Julian C. Chambliss, 2014-11-10 Ages of Heroes Eras of Men explores the changing depiction of superheroes from the comic books of the 1930s to the cinematic present In this anthology scholars from a variety of disciplines including history cultural studies Latin American studies film studies and English examine the superheroes cultural history in North America with attention to particular stories and to the historical contexts in which those narratives appeared Enduring comic book characters from DC and Marvel Comics including Superman Iron Man Batman Wonder Woman and the Avengers are examined along with lesser known Canadian Latino and African American superheroes With a sweep of characters ranging from the Pulp Era to recent cinematic adaptations and employing a variety of analytical frameworks this collection offers new insights for scholars students and fans of the superhero genre Animation Chris Pallant, 2021-01-01 Animation Critical and Primary Sources is a major multi volume work of reference that brings together seminal writings on animation studies Gathering historical and contemporary texts from a wide ranging number of sources the volumes provide a key resource in understanding and studying the past and future directions of animation studies The four volumes thematically trace animation studies from its many definitions or a lack thereof to the institutional nature of animation production to establishing greater space within animation discourse for the consideration of broadcast and interactive animation and finally giving greater contextual understanding of the field of animation studies by focusing on Authorship Genre Identity Politics and Spectatorship thus enabling readers to engage more deeply with the ideas discussed in the final volume Ordering the collection in this way avoids imposing an overly simplistic chronological framework thereby allowing debates that have developed over years and even decades to stand side by side Each volume is separately introduced and the essays structured into coherent sections on specific themes Comic Art of the United States Through 2000, Animation and Cartoons John Lent, 2005 Provides information on U S and Canadian comic art animation caricature and gag political illustrative and magazine cartoons Provides citations of books chapters articles and fugitive materials gleaned from a variety of sources worldwide including many periodicals and journals America Toons In David Perlmutter, 2014-04-01 Animation has been part of television since the start of the medium but it has rarely received unbiased recognition from media scholars More often it has been ridiculed for supposedly poor technical quality accused of trafficking in violence aimed at children and neglected for indulging in vulgar behavior These accusations are often made categorically out of prejudice or ignorance with little attempt to understand the importance of each program on its own terms This book takes a serious look at the whole genre of television animation from the early themes and practices through the evolution of the art to the present day Examining the productions of individual studios and producers the author establishes a means of understanding their work in new ways at the same time discussing the ways in which the genre has often been unfairly marginalized by critics and how especially in recent years producers have both challenged and embraced this marginality as a vital part of their work By taking seriously something often thought to be frivolous the book provides a framework for understanding the persistent presence of television animation in the American media and how surprisingly influential it has been Guardians of the North John Bell, National Archives of Canada, 1992 Canadian Television Programming Made for the United States Market Marsha Ann Tate, 2007 Factors which led to an independent television production sector in Toronto Ontario and the Ontario based companies that have competed in the U S marketplace Alliance Atlantis Communications is given particular attention as one of Ontario s most successful production companies Economic and political influences as well as current and future prospects of independent production companies are discussed Provided by publisher Television Cartoon Shows Hal Erickson, 1995 In 1949 the first made for television cartoon series debuted on a major network Tele Comics embraced the popular cliffhanger serial genre using nonmoving comic strip panels and a handful of radio actors to produce a show at a fraction of the cost accrued by a live show Despite the success of Tele Comics and a few other such shows television cartoons languished until 1954 when Walt Disney produced Disneyland From such pioneers as Tele Comics and Crusader Rabbit to modern fare such as X Men and Beavis and Butthead this is the first reference book to detail animated cartoons made exclusively for television from 1949 through 1993 Each entry includes the shows title network studios and full production information when available An essay blending plot description critical commentary and background information is also provided for each cartoon A discussion of the voice artist concludes the work Animation Magazine , 2006 The Essential Monster Movie Guide Stephen Jones, 2000 This guide alphabetically lists 4000 plus horror movies and television shows some very obscure that featured monsters Each entry provides a plot synopsis identifies the cast and director and rates the film on a five star scale No index Originally published by Billboard Books c Book News Inc Television Cartoon Shows: The shows, M-Z Hal Erickson, 2005 This reference to TV cartoon shows covers some 75 years In the ten year period from 1993 through 2003 nearly 450 new cartoon series have premiered in the U S Provided by publisher A History of Children's Television in English Canada, 1952-1986 F. illustrating the process of a fledgling nation coming into its own The third and final volume follows book history and print culture from the end of the First World War to 1980 discussing the influences on them of the twentieth century including the country's growing demographic complexity and the rise of multiculturalism Crucial to creating a sense of identity during this period was the Royal Commission on National Development in the Arts Letters and Sciences whose report of 1951 led to the establishment of influential cultural institutions such as the Canada Council for the Arts and the National Library of Canada Other key developments included the initiation and growth of library systems the expansion of film radio and television the burgeoning of children's literature enhanced opportunities for writers the Quiet Revolution in Quebec and the rise of Canadian studies and Canadian literature as respected fields for teaching and research In English Canada mainstream book publishing flourished during the 1920s suffered severely during the Depression went through a period of renewal and advance after the Second World War but became imperilled by the 1970s Small literary presses and allophone publishers in turn grew increasingly significant during the 1960s a decade in which Quebec's new cultural policies began to foster ongoing support for francophone book culture In addition to telling the stories of Canada's recent book history this volume pays due attention to multifarious developments in print culture including book prizes sports writing pulp magazines the alternative press Coles Notes the international success of Harlequin and the unprecedented influence of Les insolences du Frère Untel the famous cry for education reform in 1960s Quebec Volume three of the History of the Book in Canada marks the successful completion of an extraordinary project that documents the country's achievements for generations of scholars and readers to come
