Neon Rain:

The Neon Rain James Lee Burke, 2002-10 Published by arrangement with Henry Holt Copyright page Justice and Revenge in Contemporary American Crime Fiction Stuart Sim, 2015-04-08 The detective figure in contemporary American crime fiction increasingly relies on revenge to bring about justice in a society where there has been a sharp decline in moral values This study demonstrates how the notion of the detective as a moral exemplar or heroic ideal breaks down in the works of writers such as James Ellroy and Sara Paretsky Nightworld - Book 1 Alexander Gordon, 2019-05-09 In a world untouched by light lives a surviving race known as humanity With a perpetual night blanketing their home and deadly monsters lurking in the darkness many are losing hope for a better future Between starving being raided by rival clans eaten alive by nocturnal predators or fading into the nothingness that surrounds them at every turn this is a world most unforgiving But not all have given up the fight to survive and move forward despite the odds Follow the journey of Riven Stellrock a young scavenger of the Blacklight Clan with a penchant for making light of any situation even those that have no light shining on them at all and enjoying the simple things in life whenever possible With food becoming scarce and hope swiftly dwindling he ll have to embark on a dangerous mission to explore the darkest deepest corners of this endless world of night to save his people However many things could quickly bring his noble quest to a violent end Deadly bandits ferocious monsters or a high tension love triangle between him his childhood friend and a silent vixen that has him placed in the crossfire Being the hero isn t always easy 100 American Crime Writers S. Powell, 2012-08-07 100 American Crime Writers features discussion and analysis of the lives of crime writers and their key works examining the developments in American crime writing from the Golden Age to hardboiled detective fiction This study is essential to scholars and an ideal introduction to crime fiction for anyone who enjoys this fascinating genre A Violent Conscience Leonard Engel, 2010-03-08 Mysteries and detective stories are among the most popular of books but the writers of such genre fiction suffer from a perception that their work is to be taken less seriously than so called literary fiction The novels of James Lee Burke one of the most distinguished writers of crime novels challenge that notion as do the 12 essays in this collection This work examines Burke as a writer who has expanded the mystery detective genre with an astonishing diversity of themes imaginative language and descriptions and unforgettable characters He seems unbounded by limitations of genre An interview with Burke is included Cracker! Heather Taylor Johnson, 2003 The creative writing courses at Adelaide University have now been in place for six years and this is the third anthology to emerge from the Masters Degree course Each year the students many of them established writers select a theme around which to write poetry and stories These writers have wrapped up the very essence of Christmas with words Unwrap and prepare to be surprised for the essence of Christmas is a mixed bag tears joy tragedy memories hope horror apathy love and loneliness And of course the odd bit of ho ho ho The Neon Rain James Lee Burke, 1991 Dave Robicheaux a New Orleans detective discovers that someone wants

Mānoa ,2011

James Lee Burke and the Soul of Dave Robicheaux Barbara Bogue,2006-09-05 When he created the character Dave Robicheaux author James Lee Burke lent the New Orleans homicide detective a few of his own characteristics a daughter named Alafair a lifetime struggle with alcohol his Roman Catholic faith and his love for fishing and the outdoors On the other hand Robicheaux is portrayed as a veteran of the Vietnam war something Burke never experienced firsthand Yet the demons Burke has known allow him to write convincingly about demons he never knew Thus Burke has created a realistic complex and compelling protagonist for his crime fiction series That depth is one element that elevates Burke s writing above the status of genre fiction This book explores how James Lee Burke through the first person narrative of detective Dave Robicheaux probes the world of law and order crime and disorder and one man s internal conflicts with modern moral issues The first chapter reveals the similarities and differences between real life creator and fictional protagonist Next chapters arranged by theme explore the roles of women Robicheaux s paternal side as revealed through his adopted daughter the paternal influences in the detective s own life and the contrasting personality of his half brother Jimmie The next chapters probe the roots of the detective s moral dilemmas his battle with alcohol the Vietnam war s lingering trauma and religion Next the author explores Burke s use of the supernatural sense of place and music to deepen his stories Final chapters delve into Robicheaux s moral quandaries as a law enforcement officer

the character's contrast to his reckless and funny partner Clete and how Burke reveals truths about life through Robicheaux. An interview with Burke is included. Neon Rain Sean Reynolds, Dominique Dickey, Bruce Cordell, 2025-06-30 Angel and the Bear Brian Charlton, 1979 A pinball wizard stars in this urban romance set where the blues meet jazz in London Ontario's historic York Hotel New York, 2007 Willeford Don Herron, 1997 This is an extensive critical appreciation of the life and writings of an American novelist who is a master of the absurd and one of the finest writers in the tough guy genre Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007, 2008-02 Acts and Shadows Philip K. Jason, 2000 The imaginative literature of the Vietnam War participates both overtly and covertly in a struggle for national memory. First generation Vietnam War literature focusing on representations of combat and life in the battlefield strove to give testimony to write history. Later writings in their range of genre and style investigate and interrogate the very meaning of war. To reflect these two stages Philip Jason divides his newest book of literary criticism into two sections: acts and shadows. In Acts Jason provides formal and cultural readings of combat narratives by such authors as James Webb, Larry Heinemann, and Joe Haldeman and explores the meaning of authenticity as applied to Vietnam War texts. Shadows looks both forward and backward from the combat zone, challenging the parameters of what we define as Vietnam War literature.
