Nervous System Lina Meruane, 2021-05-18 An electrifying novel about illness displacement and what holds us together by the author of Seeing Red Ella is an astrophysicist struggling with her doctoral thesis in the country of the present but she is from the country of the past a place burdened in her memory by both personal and political tragedies Her partner El is a forensic scientist who analyzes the bones of victims of state violence and is recovering from an explosion at a work site that almost killed him Consumed by writer's block Ella finds herself wishing that she would become ill which would provide time for writing and perhaps an excuse for her lack of progress Then she begins to experience mysterious symptoms that doctors find undiagnosable As Ella's anxiety grows the past begins to exert a strong gravitational pull and other members of her family come into focus the widowed Father the Stepmother the Twins and the Firstborn Each of them has their own experience of illness and violence and eventually the systems that both hold them together and atomize them are exposed Lina Meruane's Nervous System is an extraordinary clinical biography of a family full of affection and resentment dark humor and buried secrets in which illness describes the traumas that can be visited not just upon the body but on families and on the history of the countries present and past that we live in
