Masterpieces Of African American Literature:

Masterpieces of African-American Literature Frank N. Magill, 1992-12-08 A unique and vital guide that summarizes explains and evaluates the greatest works of African American literature including articles on writings from James Baldwin W E B DuBois Langston Hughes Malcolm X Toni Morrison and many more The Concise Oxford Companion to African American Literature William L. Andrews, Frances Smith Foster, Trudier Harris, 2001-02-15 A breathtaking achievement this Concise Companion is a suitable crown to the astonishing production in African American literature and criticism that has swept over American literary studies in the last two decades It offers an enormous range of writers from Sojourner Truth to Frederick Douglass from Zora Neale Hurston to Ralph Ellison and from Toni Morrison to August Wilson It contains entries on major works including synopses of novels such as Harriet Jacobs's Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Richard Wright's Native Son and Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun It also incorporates information on literary characters such as Bigger Thomas Coffin Ed Johnson Kunta Kinte Sula Peace as well as on character types such as Aunt Jemima Brer Rabbit John Henry Stackolee and the trickster Icons of black culture are addressed including vivid details about the lives of Muhammad Ali John Coltrane Marcus Garvey Jackie Robinson John Brown and Harriet Tubman Here too are general articles on poetry fiction and drama on autobiography slave narratives Sunday School literature and oratory as well as on a wide spectrum of related topics Compact yet thorough this handy volume gathers works from a vast array of sources from the black periodical press to women's clubs making it one of the most substantial guides available on the growing exciting world of African American literature Richard Wright Keneth Kinnamon, 2014-11-04 African American writer Richard Wright 1908-1960 was celebrated during the early 1940s for his searing autobiography Black Boy and fiction Native Son By 1947 he felt so unwelcome in his homeland that he exiled himself and his family in Paris But his writings changed American culture forever and today they are mainstays of literature and composition classes He and his works are also the subjects of numerous critical essays and commentaries by contemporary writers This volume presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of those essays books and articles from 1983 through 2003 Arranged alphabetically by author within years are some 8320 entries ranging from unpublished dissertations to book length studies of African American literature and literary criticism Also included as an appendix are addenda to the author's earlier bibliography covering the years from 1934 through 1982 This is the exhaustive reference for serious students of Richard Wright and his critics African-American Literature Paul Q. Tilden, 2003 Having its origins in the slave narratives and the folktales transmitted orally during that period the literature of the African American has been rich and varied Beginning with the first published work of fiction Clotel Or the President's Daughter in 1853 continuing under the influence of W E B Du Bois during the first part of this century and reaching a flowering during the Harlem Renaissance major contributions have been made to American literature Today African American writers such as Toni Morrison Alex Haley and Maya Angelou are recognised as among the most significant and popular authors in this country This new book presents an important overview of African American literature as well as a comprehensive bibliography with easy access provided by title subject and author indexes The Oxford Companion to African American Literature William L. Andrews, Frances Smith Foster, Trudier Harris, 1997 This the first comprehensive one volume reference work devoted to African American literature contains much information on little known writers unavailable elsewhere The book covers all types of genre and examines unique aspects of Afro Americanism American Reference Books Annual June M. Chenoweth, 1995-04-15 With more than 1600 descriptive and evaluative entries ARBA continues its 26 year tradition as a comprehensive review source for reference works published or distributed in the US ARBA 95 encompasses the subject spectrum covering such broad areas as general reference history education economics and business and science and technology Of special note in this edition is increased coverage of CD ROM products More than 350 reviewers provide reviews that cover strengths and weaknesses of the reference works Timelines of African-American History Thomas Dale Cowan, Jack Maguire, 1994 A year by year look at African American history from the 1490 s to the 1990 s presented in chronological order Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Generalia, language and literature, the arts Albert John Walford, 1998 From its first edition the purpose of Walford has been to identify and evaluate the widest possible range of reference materials No rigid definition of reference is applied In addition to the expected bibliographies indexes dictionaries encyclopaedias and directories a number of important textbooks and manuals of general practice are included While the majority of the items are books Walford is a guide to reference material Thus periodical articles microforms online and CD ROM sources are all represented In this volume a particular effort has been made to improve coverage of the latter two categories Bibliographic Guide to Black Studies Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture, 1994 African American Review, 1997 As the official publication of the Division on Black American Literature and Culture of the Modern Language Association of America African American review promotes an exchange among writers and scholars in the arts humanities and social sciences who hold diverse perspectives of African American literature and culture Guides to Library Collection Development John Thomas Gillespie, Ralph J. Folcarelli, 1994-08-15 Intended to enhance collection development in school public and college libraries this volume lists and annotates approximately 1 500 significant bibliographies published from 1985 through 1993 with some earlier but still useful publications Annotations indicate scope of the work size often the number of entries kinds of material included purpose arrangement nature of entries indexes special features and a recommendation Author title and subject indexes provide easy access to the entries With its deep and comprehensive coverage this work will help not only in the process of selecting and acquiring materials for the library but also in the process of identification of items for reference readers advisory interlibrary loan and collection evaluation Multicultural Children's Literature Donna E. Norton, 2009 With the growing number of ethnic minority students in public schools it is very important for teachers librarians and all those who work with children to have an understanding of appropriate multicultural literature This book and the literature selections are designed to develop heightened sensitivity and understanding of people from various cultures and traditions through the selection of carefully chosen literature It includes a balance of research about the culture and the literature a discussion of authentic literature for students from early childhood through young adults and teaching activities designed to develop higher cognitive abilities The book uses a unique five phase approach for the study of multicultural literature that has been field tested

World Literature Reader Theo D'haen, César Domínguez, Mads Rosendahl Thomsen, 2012-06 World Literature is an increasingly influential subject in literary studies which has led to the re framing of contemporary ideas of national literatures language and translation World Literature A Reader brings together thirty essential readings which display the theoretical foundations of the subject as well as showing its conceptual development over a two hundred year period The book features an illuminating introduction to the subject with suggested reading paths to help readers navigate through the materials texts exploring key themes such as globalization cosmopolitanism post trans nationalism and translation and nationalism writings by major figures including J W Goethe Karl Marx Friedrich Engels Longxi Zhao David Damrosch Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Pascale Casanova and Milan Kundera The early explorations of the meaning of Weltliteratur are introduced while twenty first century interpretations by leading scholars today show the latest critical developments in the field The editors offer readers the ideal introduction to the theories and debates surrounding the impact of this crucial area on the modern literary landscape
