Tables in the Wilderness Preston Yancey, 2014-09-30 In Tables in the Wilderness Preston Yancey arrived at Baylor University in the autumn of 2008 with his life figured out he was Southern Baptist conservative had a beautiful girlfriend he would soon propose to had spent the summer living in southeast Asia as a missionary and planned to study political science Then God slowly allowed

Preston's secure world to fall apart until every piece of what he thought was true was lost his church his life of study his political leanings his girlfriend his best friend and his God It was the loss of God in the midst of all the godly things that changed Preston forever One day he felt he heard God say It's going to be about trust with you and then God was silent and he still hasn't spoken At least not in the ways Preston used to think were the only ways God spoke No pillars of fire no clouds just a bit of whisper in wind Now Preston is a patchwork of Anglican spirituality and Baptist sensibility with a mother who has been in chronic neurological pain for thirteen years and father still devoted to Southern Baptist ministry who reads saints lives on the side He now shares his story of coming to terms with a God who is bigger than the one he thought he was worshiping the God of a common faith the God who makes tables in the wilderness the God who is found in cathedrals and in forests and in the Eucharist the God who speaks in fire and in wind the God who is bigger than narrow understandings of his will his desire his plan the God who is so big that everything must be his AB Bookman's Weekly, 1994 Auburn
