Monet's beautiful impressionist art brings light and fresh perspective to anyone who encounters it now shown here in an accessible gift edition with sprayed edges. A gorgeous new edition with the cover printed on silver. Towards the end of his life and much inspired by Japanese water gardens, Monet spent a great deal of time in his beloved Giverny. Adorned with poppies, blue sage, dahlias, and irises, the waters were disturbed only by bamboos and water lilies. His water garden was originally created to satisfy a need to be near water and to provide a visual feast that could be enjoyed from his house. The pond was fed by the river Ru and weeping willow and silver birch hung over its edges, caressing the fronds of the greenery and blossoms below. Its famous green wooden footbridge was built across the water and it became the central focus of many of his works. He said, "It took me some time to understand my water lilies. I planted them for pleasure and so he began to work on what is probably the most famous series of paintings the world has ever seen."

Origins of Modern Art Rosalind Ormiston,2015-10-06 The tender roots of Modern Art can be seen in the wild sea paintings of Turner as early as the mid 19th Century but it took the Impressionists and the Pre Raphaelites to break the elite classical mode until the final blows were dealt in the early 1900s by Kandinsky Klee and Picasso Modern Art was a reaction to the gathering pace of industrialisation of the late Victorian world and the desire for art that looked forwards not behind to classical myth and legend But once the beast of modernism had been unleashed it fragmented into many different forms each of which are explored in this striking heavily illustrated new book
