iMatar o morir! Manuel Zaragoza López, 1984 Hispanic Linguistics at the Crossroads Rachel Klassen, Juana M. Licerias, Elena Valenzuela, 2015-07-15 This collection of articles contributed by both experienced and novice researchers addresses core issues in three different domains of Hispanic Linguistics theoretical linguistics language acquisition and language contact Together these papers provide an overview of how the analysis of Spanish contributes to current formal and experimental linguistics while on an individual level offering fine grained analyses and innovative proposals covering a wide range of areas such as semantics and pragmatics syntax morphology phonology prosody dialectal variation first second and bilingual language acquisition as well as sociolinguistics The volume will be a resource for graduate students academics and researchers in theoretical experimental and descriptive linguistics in general and Hispanic Linguistics in particular The selection of chapters included in this volume were presented at the 17th Hispanic Linguistics Symposium hosted in October 2013 by the Language Acquisition Research Laboratory at the University of Ottawa in Ottawa Canada Matar o morir, 1954 Matar o morir Dennis Hopeless, 2019 Exhuming Loss Layla Renshaw, 2016-06-16 This book examines the contested representations of those murdered during the Spanish Civil War of the 1930s in two small rural communities as they undergo the experience of exhumation identification and reburial from nearby mass graves Based on interviews with relatives of the dead community members and forensic archaeologists it pays close attention to the role of excavated objects and images in breaking the pact of silence that surrounded the memory of these painful events for decades afterward It also assesses the significance of archaeological and forensic practices in changing relationships between the living and dead The exposure of graves has opened up a discursive space in Spanish society for multiple representations to be made of the war dead and of Spain's traumatic past Matar o morir Anthony G. Murphy, 1965 Hamlet William Shakespeare, 1886 Mass Killings and Violence in Spain, 1936-1952 Peter Anderson, Miguel Ángel del Arco Blanco, 2014-09-19 Historians have only recently established the scale of the violence carried out by the supporters of General Franco during and after the Spanish Civil War of 1936-1939 An estimated 88 000 unidentified victims of Francoist violence remain to be exhumed from mass graves and given a dignified burial and for decades the history of these victims has also been buried This volume brings together a range of Spanish and British specialists who offer an original and challenging overview of this violence Contributors not only examine the mass killings and incarcerations but also carefully consider how the repression carried out in the government zone during the Civil War long misrepresented in Francoist accounts seeped into everyday life A final section explores ways of facing Spain's recent violent past La expresión de la causatividad en español actual Antonio Aranda Ortiz, 1990 Bodies in Conflict Paul Cornish, Nicholas J Saunders, 2013-12-17 Twentieth century war is a unique cultural phenomenon and the last two decades have seen significant advances in our ability to conceptualize and understand the past and the character of modern technological warfare At the forefront of these developments has been the re appraisal of the human body in conflict from the ethics of digging up First World War bodies for television programmes to the contentious political issues surrounding the reburial of Spanish Civil War victims the relationships between the war body and material culture e g clothing and prostheses ethnicity and identity in body treatment and the role of the body as bomb in Iraq Afghanistan and beyond Focused on material culture Bodies in Conflict revitalizes investigations into the physical and symbolic worlds of modern conflict and that have defined us as subjects through memory imagination culture and technology The chapters in this book present an interdisciplinary approach which draws upon but does not privilege archaeology anthropology military and cultural history art history cultural geography and museum and heritage studies The complexity of modern conflict demands a coherent integrated and sensitized hybrid approach which calls on different disciplines where they overlap in a shared common terrain that of the materiality of conflict and its aftermath in relation to the human body Bodies in Conflict brings together the diverse interests and expertise of a host of disciplines to create a new intellectual engagement with our corporeal nature in times of conflict
