Reading and Experience: A Philosophical Investigation Alexander Samely,2024-06-10 This text is the first comprehensive attempt in decades to integrate reading into the philosophical discussion of the synthesis of experience more generally It offers a comprehensive critique of three disciplinary approaches to reading philosophical literary and empirical neuroscientific while developing an innovative and unifying phenomenological account It discusses texts from a variety of contemporary and historical contexts. It is inclusive treating non fiction alongside fiction literary art alongside everyday texts and narrative alongside thematic discourse. It addresses all reading practices found today casual and unreflective reading close and scholarly reading with re reading the analysis of literary art and sacred text study and memorization. In the current intellectual landscape the book is unique in bringing all these aspects together in a philosophically coherent discussion. The book provides a critique of philosophical accounts of text meaning and linguistic experience by philosophers from Husserl and Ingarden to Sartre Merleau Ponty Arendt Gadamer and Derrida and examines the positions of contemporary naturalizing phenomenologists such as Varela and Thompson. Also treated are neuroscientists such as Dehaene and theorists of consciousness such as Kintsch Flanagan and Dennett. Finally this volume engages with psychological linguistic structuralist theory of mind and experiential approaches in literary studies from Böhler and Hamburger to Fludernik Herman and Kuzmiov. It appeals to students and researchers working in these fields.
