The Case of the Missing Cookies

It was a sunny afternoon at Middleton Elementary, and the annual bake sale was in full swing. Cookies were piled high with cupcakes, brownies, and pies. But the star of the show was the brand new chocolate chip cookies until they vanished! One moment, the golden tray of cookies was sitting proudly on the table, and the next, it was gone without a crumb in sight. The students gasped, the teachers shrugged, and even Principal Plum looked baffled. Who could have taken them? Detective Plum needs you to solve the mystery of who ate the missing cookies.

Instructions: Solve the math questions and eliminate each box image that contains a matching answer. The last box left unmarked on the page is the mystery solution.

Who ate the missing cookies?
