This volume offers film enthusiasts and teachers an investigation into what film critics do and examines what ideologies inform their evaluations By employing recent television programs and films and comparing them to older ones the study is able to trace changes in the methodologies of film and media critics The work argues for the emergence of neofuturism as a chosen method of interpretation contrasting with the dominance of postmodernism as the evaluative method through the early years of the new millennium It also asks the questions who evaluates film and why In doing so the study questions the criteria for film evaluation the validity of some reviews and asks the question whether the evaluative system needs to change altogether Super Dark Tanith Morse, 2013 Who or what is Lee Weaver That is the question in this gripping paranormal romance that reviewers and readers describe as amazing super great and impossible to put down Darkness stalks seventeen year old Sam Harper Ten years ago on Halloween night grotesque creatures snatched her best friend Elliot and Sam narrowly escaped with her life Now a decade on the police investigation has ground to a halt and Elliot's whereabouts remains a mystery Traumatized by her ordeal Sam finds it hard to make friends She is mistrustful of authority and changed schools more times than she cares to remember To her the world is cruel and unforgiving Then she meets the enigmatic Lee Weaver With his gorgeous face and magnetic presence he turns heads wherever he goes Sam has never wanted anyone as much as she wants Lee but there are things about the alluring stranger that don't add up leading Sam to ask unsettling questions about her past Soon she discovers the boy of her dreams is keeping a terrible secret one that threatens to destroy everything Sam holds dear This is BOOK ONE of The Super Dark Trilogy It is not a stand alone novel Praise for SUPER DARK
