and knowledge they need to succeed in an ever changing world

Reading, Writing, and Gender Gail Lynn

Goldberg, Barbara Roswell, 2013-09-13 Like an increasing number of educators you recognize that girls and boys approach reading and writing differently and that boys are lagging behind girls in many assessments of literacy learning This book does more than describe and explain these differences It builds on the authors state of the art research to offer instructional strategies and classroom activities to help both girls and boys develop as readers and writers This book is for classroom teachers in grades 3-8 as well as for reading specialists instructional leaders and other educators It provides detailed descriptions of instructional activities accompanied by reproducible tools and materials illustrative examples of student work concise summaries of state of the art research and ideas for action research projects The strategies and activities in this book have all been classroom tested with diverse student populations

Children's Reading Choices Martin Coles, Christine

Hall, 2002-01-04 Children's Reading Choices discusses the reading habits of children aged between 10 and 14 The book reports the findings of the Children's Reading Choices project conducted by the authors from the University of Nottingham and the largest national survey of children's reading choices since the 1970s The book includes reports and discussion on girls and boys reading preferences and the differences between their reading habits the place of series books teenage magazines and comics in children's reading the most popular authors and titles at different ages purchasing habits and library use

Building Communities of Engaged Readers Teresa Cremin, Marilyn Mottram, Fiona M. Collins, Sacha

Powell, Kimberly Safford, 2014-06-20 Reading for pleasure urgently requires a higher profile to raise attainment and increase children's engagement as self motivated and socially interactive readers Building Communities of Engaged Readers highlights the concept of Reading Teachers who are not only knowledgeable about texts for children but are aware of their own reading identities and prepared to share their enthusiasm and understanding of what being a reader means Sharing the processes of reading with young readers is an innovative approach to developing new generations of readers Examining the interplay between the will and the skill to read the book distinctively details a reading for pleasure pedagogy and demonstrates that reader engagement is strongly influenced by relationships between children teachers families and communities Importantly it provides compelling evidence that reciprocal reading communities in school encompass a shared concept of what it means to be a reader in the 21st century considerable teacher and child knowledge of children's literature and other texts pedagogic practices which acknowledge and develop diverse reader identities spontaneous inside text talk on the part of all members a shift in the focus of control and new social spaces that encourage choice and children's rights as readers Written by experts in the literacy field and illustrated throughout with examples from the project schools it is essential reading for all those concerned with improving young people's enjoyment of and attainment in reading
