Mugambis Journey:

Mugambi's Journey John E. Becker, 2005 When lions like those who killed his brothers drive Mugambi his mother and two sisters from their den on the plains of Africa the six week old cub proves his courage on their perilous journey toward safety From Historical to Critical Post-Colonial Theology Robert S. Heaney, 2015-11-06 What is post colonial theology How does it relate to theology that emerged in historically colonial situations These are two questions that get to the heart of Robert S Heaney s work as he considers the extent to which theologians predating the emergence of post colonial theology might be considered as precursory to this theological movement Heaney argues that the work of innovative theologians John S Mbiti and Jesse N K Mugambi important in their own right must now also be considered in relation to the continued emergence of post colonial theology When this is done fresh perspectives on both the nature of post colonial theology and contextual theology emerge Through a sympathetic and critical reading of Mbiti and Mugambi Heaney offers a series of constructive moves that counter the ongoing temptation toward acontextualism that continues to haunt theology both in the North and in the South Who Do You Say That I Am? Rodney L. Reed, David K. Ngaruiya, 2021-11-05 For the church there can be no more significant question than Christ s Who do you say that I am It is the cornerstone upon which all of Christian faith and praxis must stand In this volume the sixth from the Africa Society of Evangelical Theology contributors explore the question of Christ s identity and its implications for the global church from a distinctly African perspective Engaging biblical studies church history and applications for missions discipleship and inter religious dialogue these essays utilize African hermeneutics and rich cultural perspectives to shed light on Christ s contextual relevance for Africa and for the world The final section is dedicated to the memory of John S Mbiti the father of modern African theology who passed away in 2019 Religion and Social Reconstruction in Africa Elias Kifon Bongmba, 2018-06-13 Religion has played a major role in both the division and unification of peoples and countries within Africa Its capacity to cause and to heal societal rifts has been well documented This book addresses this powerful societal force and explores the implications of a theology of reconstruction most notably articulated by Jesse Mugambi This way of thinking seeks to build on liberation theology aiming to encourage the rebuilding of African society on its own terms An international panel of contributors bring an interdisciplinary perspective to the issues around reconstructing the religious elements of African society Looking at issues of reconciliation postcolonialism and indigenous spirituality among others they show that Mugambi s cultural and theological insight has the potential to revolutionise the way people in Africa address this issue This is a fascinating exploration of the religious facets of African life As such it will be of great interest to scholars of religious studies theology and African studies Anglican Theology Stephen Burns, 2024-06-30 It is now widely acknowledged that Anglicanism far from being centred on western contexts is a worldwide phenomenon with some of its liveliest corners located in the global south Yet the Anglican theology which is taught in institutions is still focused overwhelmingly on a handful of British and North American voices By exploring the work of eighteen tricontinental and marginalized Anglican theologians this book begins to correct widespread bias in Anglican theology towards Britain and North Atlantic contexts The chapters it gathers consider the methods concerns and contributions to Anglican thinkers from Africa Asia Pasifika South America and eastern European settings amongst minoritized migrants to North Atlantic countries Chapters include Esther Mombo on Jenny Te Paa Daniel Michael Jagessar on Mukti Barton and Keun Joo Christine Pae on Kwok Pui lan Kenya Gazette ,1958-12-16 The Kenya Gazette is an official publication of the government of the Republic of Kenya It contains notices of new legislation notices required to be published by law or policy as well as other announcements that are published for general public information It is published every week usually on Friday with occasional releases of special or supplementary editions within the week Reconstruction and Renewal in African Christian Theology Valentin Dedji,2003 Together We'll Start a New Life Wairimu Kibugi Gitau,1996
