Challenging Islamic Traditions: Bernie Power, 2016-05-06 The Hadith are Islam's most influential texts after the Qur'an They outline in detail what the Qur'an often leaves unsaid The Hadith are a foundation for Islamic law and theology and a key to understanding the worldview of Islam and why many Muslims do the things they do This book subjects the Hadith to a critical analysis from a biblical perspective In a scholarly and respectful way it exposes significant inconsistencies within these ancient documents and highlights potential problems with the Muslim Christian interface

Reconfiguring Islamic Tradition Samira Haj, 2011-04-01 Samira Haj conceptualizes Islam through a close reading of two Muslim reformers Muhammad ibn Abdul Wahhab 1703-1787 and Muhammad Abduh 1849-1905 each representative of a distinct trend chronological as well as philosophical in modern Islam Their works are examined primarily through the prism of two conceptual questions the idea of the modern and the formation of a Muslim subject Approaching Islam through the works of these two Muslims she illuminates aspects of Islamic modernity that have been obscured and problematizes assumptions founded on the oppositional dichotomies of modern traditional secular sacred and liberal fundamentalist The book explores the notions of the community society and the subject's location within it to demonstrate how Muslims in different historical contexts responded differently to theological and practical questions This knowledge will help us better understand the conflicts currently unfolding in parts of the Arab world

The Quest of the Historical Muhammad and Other Studies on Formative Islam Stephen J. Shoemaker, 2024-07-09 The lead essay in this book is the first effort to approach the historical figure of Muhammad in a manner comparable to the investigations that biblical scholars have made in the effort to recover the historical figure of Jesus Using comparable methods and approaches this study demonstrates that despite a widely held belief that Islam was born in the full light of history we in fact know considerably less about both Muhammad and the beginnings of Islam than we do about the historical Jesus and the beginnings of Christianity Also included are republications of four previously published essays dealing with such topics as the Qur'an's status as a late ancient biblical apocryphon the relation between the Jerusalem Temple and the Holy House revered by the Qur'an and the imminent eschatology of the Qur'an and the early Islamic tradition

The Death of a Prophet

Stephen J. Shoemaker, 2011-11-29 The oldest Islamic biography of Muhammad written in the mid eighth century relates that the prophet died at Medina in 632 while earlier and more numerous Jewish Christian Samaritan and even Islamic sources indicate that Muhammad survived to lead the conquest of Palestine beginning in 634-35 Although this discrepancy has been known for several decades Stephen J Shoemaker here writes the first systematic study of the various traditions Using methods and perspectives borrowed from biblical studies Shoemaker concludes that these reports of Muhammad's leadership during the Palestinian invasion likely preserve an early Islamic tradition that was later revised to meet the needs of a changing Islamic self identity Muhammad and his followers appear to have expected the world to end in the immediate future perhaps even in their own lifetimes Shoemaker contends When the eschatological Hour failed to arrive on schedule and continued to be deferred to an ever more distant point the meaning of Muhammad's message and the faith that he established needed to be fundamentally rethought by his early followers The larger purpose of The Death of a Prophet exceeds the mere possibility of adjusting the date of Muhammad's death by a few years far more important to Shoemaker are questions about the manner in which Islamic origins should be studied The difference in the early sources affords an important opening through which to explore the nature of primitive Islam more broadly Arguing for greater methodological unity between the study of Christian and Islamic origins Shoemaker emphasizes the potential value of non Islamic sources for reconstructing the history of formative Islam
