Mujer De Pura Casta:

Mujer de pura casta Fermín Marengo Ríos, 2000 Mujeres indígenas en la Argentina Silvia María Hirsch, Guadalupe Barúa, 2008 Los capítulos de este libro ejemplifican una variedad de orientaciones y enfoques en temas referentes a las mujeres indígenas. Un punto en común en todos ellos es que están basados en trabajo de campo etnográfico: es decir, que los autores han recopilado de manera directa los datos en comunidades indígenas del país. Por ello se fundamentan en el pensamiento, las prácticas y las expresiones de las mujeres mismas. Las temáticas abordadas incluyen los procesos de socialización, la construcción cultural de lo femenino, la reproducción y los rituales de iniciación de las mujeres, la gestación, el espacio doméstico, el trabajo femenino y la maternidad. Con este trabajo se procura estimular el desarrollo del estudio del género en comunidades indígenas y abrir el campo a nuevas líneas de investigación teóricas y empíricas. Hay una profunda deuda histórica con las mujeres indígenas a las que es necesario darles voz y presencia. A partir de este libro se espera comenzar a saldar esa deuda y dar una mayor visibilidad a sus voces y sus vidas.

La mujer mártir Juan Gonzalo de la Selva, 1877 Esplendores y miserias de las cortesanas Prostitutas y amantes franceses del siglo XIX Honoré de Balzac, 2020-10-15. Interesante relato que narra el quehacer de diversas personalidades parisinas del siglo XIX. Narra una complicada historia de amor desigual entre una prostituta cortesana y un joven advenedizo. La trama de la novela Esplendores y miserias de las cortesanas por cuyos capítulos desfilan más de doscientos personajes se enfoca en la segunda vida de Lucien de Rubempré, salvado del suicidio por el enigmático sacerdote Carlos Herrera al final de otra obra de Balzac titulada Ilusiones perdidas. El referido sacerdote en realidad es Vautrin, alias Trompe-la-mort, un antiguo presidiario incapaz de volver a una situación social honrada bajo su verdadero nombre. Vautrin quiere triunfar y vengarse de la sociedad que lo ha rechazado, por lo que sirve de Lucien, joven poeta dandy, y utilizando todos los medios, usurpa su identidad, malversación de bienes, instrumentalización de la cortesana Esther. Articula vivencias de una bellísima cortesana casi adolescente y enamora a un poeta, a un joven y a un ex convicto, quienes serán personajes centrales de la novela. Aunque escrita con estilo irregular, la obra corrobora una vez más el genio creativo del autor, aglutinador de psicologías y entornos sociales, capaz de captar la complejidad universal pasada y presente de la condición humana con todos sus defectos y virtudes. El relato inicia en un baile de máscaras de la época al que se dieron cita intelectuales, artistas y personalidades parisinas provenientes de las castas dominantes en el siglo XIX, pero enseguida el escenario geográfico de la narración y las intrigas que se tejen en la interacción social se mueven en muchos sitios históricos de la ciudad de París y sus alrededores. Lectura obligatoria para comprender la vida social política y cultural de Europa Occidental durante el agitado siglo XIX.
