The Poetry of Paul Muldoon introduces the student and general reader to the critical discussion surrounding Muldoon's oeuvre, as well as to his major themes. It examines the poet's meditations on culture and nature, human and animal speculations on the act of perception, figures fragmented by the Troubles, and philosophical considerations of colonisation. It then discusses what rank among the most beautiful and intricate elegies of our time. For Muldoon, art's complicity in suffering is a political self-indicting question which his best poems endeavour to answer. If sometimes this Pulitzer Prize winner insists that art has a positive role to play, at other times he fears that it merely feeds off the carnage. This critical book shows how, for Muldoon, art should not merely repeat the devastation of the world although he is afraid that it does and engages in bitter moral despair that places his work among the very best any contemporary poet has written The Poetry of Paul Muldoon unearths difficult questions of form with a metaphysical significance that is suitable to our times BOOK JACKET “All Will Be Swept Away” Wit Pietrzak,2022-11-04 The book offers the first comprehensive study of Paul Muldoon s mourning verse Considering not only the celebrated elegies like Yarrow Incantata or Sillyhow Stride but also the elegiac impulse as it develops throughout Muldoon s entire work All Will Be Swept Away charts a large swathe of Muldoon s poetic landscape in order to show the complexity with which he approaches the themes of death and mourning Using archival material as well as a vast array of theoretical apparatuses the book unveils the psychological literary and political undertones in his poetry all the while attending to the operations of the poetic text its form its music and its capacity to console warn and censure Bill Nye and Boomerang: Or, The Tale of a Meek-eyed Mule Bill Nye,1881 Bill Nye and Boomerang: Or, The Tale of a Meek-eyed Mule, and Some Other Literary Gems Bill Nye,1881 Critical Survey of Poetry Philip K.
