Multilingual Self An Inquiry Into Language Learning:

The Multilingual Self Natasha Lvovich,1997 For a wide audience of students and scholars of second language learning and cultural identity this book relates the author s stories about how languages have integrated her being defined and formed her sense of self

The Multiple Realities of Multilingualism Elka Todeva,Jasone Cenoz,2009 Review text As such the book is an informative inspiring read and will be of great interest to a diverse audience including language learners researchers teachers educators and other professionals who may encounter or use a variety of languages in their daily lives whether they are mono bi or multilingual Ron Peek in International Journal of Multilingualism 2010

Manual of Language Acquisition Christiane Fäcke,2014-08-25 This manual contains overviews on language acquisition and distinguishes between first and second language acquisition It also deals with Romance languages as foreign languages in the world and with language acquisition in some countries of the Romance speaking world This reference work will be helpful for researchers students and teachers interested in language acquisition in general and in Romance languages in particular

Intercultural Competence Past, Present and Future María Dolores López-Jiménez,Jorge Sánchez-Torres,2021-01-08 This book explores the benefits of teaching reflection upon one s own culture to develop intercultural competence and looks into the relationship between the proficiency level of the second language and the target culture It introduces new debates on the concept of critical cultural awareness in intercultural learning and teaching for example the indiscriminate use of terminologies related to the idea of intercultural encounters Also it provides insight into the relationship between language and culture using a new tool such as the Autobiography of Intercultural Encounters through Visual Media The presentation of different approaches tools barriers educational and cultural realities online intercultural exchange projects and concepts such as motivation attitudes stereotyping otherization and critical cultural awareness makes this book an excellent instrument not only for teachers but also for researchers policy makers and private and public institutions that want to explore culture and interculturality and to promote an intercultural competence and global citizenship among its learners users clients and or an interculturally oriented language education

Researching Identity and Interculturality Fred Dervin,Karen Risager,2014-09-19 This volume focuses on advances in research methodology in an interdisciplinary field framed by discourses of identity and interculturality It includes a range of qualitative studies studies of interaction narrative studies conversation analysis ethnographic studies postcolonial studies and critical discourse studies and emphasizes the role of discourse and power in all studies of identity and interculturality The volume particularly focuses on critical reflexivity in every stage of research including reflections on theoretical concepts such as identity and interculturality and their relationship with methodology and analytical practice reflections on researcher identity and subjectivity reflections on local and global contexts of research and reflections on language choice and linguacultural aspects of data generation analysis and communication multilingualism Nikolas Coupland, Adam Jaworski, 2009 This title is a new collection in Routledge's Critical Concepts in Linguistics series. In six volumes it provides a critical synthesis of the key ideas, findings, methods and approaches that make up the interdisciplinary field of sociolinguistics. It includes both classic texts and contemporary state of the art research with a bias towards the latter. The editors aver that the collection will stand as an articulation of the New Sociolinguistics as it is emerging through a sustained reflexive reassessment of the field which is now ongoing set against a core of classic texts.

Resources in Education, 1997 Language Learner, 2006-09 Identity and Learning in the Narratives of Latina/o Immigrants Julia Elizabeth Menard-Warwick, 2004 Carleton Papers in Applied Language Studies, 2003
Journal of Speech-language Pathology and Audiology, 1999 Methods for Teaching Foreign Languages Joan Kelly Hall, 2001 For undergraduate or graduate level foreign language methods courses in Teacher Preparation. Also appropriate for junior high and high school teachers of modern foreign languages. Exclusive in its socio cultural approach to language learning this comprehensive text builds on the National Communication Standards for foreign language learning. Its goal is to equip students with the necessary knowledge and skills to establish and maintain effective classroom communities of foreign language learners. To accomplish this the author incorporates the latest research and theoretical insight regarding communication and communicative development with practical application. The result is a complete effective approach to designing curriculum instruction and assessment for foreign languages. Reflections on Multiliterate Lives Diane Dewhurst Belcher, Ulla Connor, 2001 Eighteen contributors from 14 countries of origin all of whom have succeeded in academic careers using a second language tell about their formative literacy experiences. Many are professional language educators and others work in the physical, mathematical and social sciences. The point say the editors is to show both that an awareness of cultural difference can be a source of great strength and that no discipline should be seen as out of reach for second language users. Distributed in the US by UTP Distribution c Book News Inc Social Context and Fluency in L2 Learners Lynda Pritchard Newcombe, 2007 The focus in this book is on learners experiences using Welsh outside class but the issues discussed have implications for a wide range of other situations where the population is bilingual or multilingual and interaction takes place in a language of wider communication. MultiCultural Review, 1999 Matryoshki in Two Worlds Sharon Kay Sundre, 2000 Focus on French as a Foreign Language Jean-Marc Dewaele, 2005 The aim of the present book is to bring the diverse research on French as a foreign language to a wider audience. The book comprises ten innovative chapters that cover the full range of learners and users from beginners to advanced learners from different linguistic backgrounds. The approaches include functionalism, universal grammar, psycholinguistics and variationist sociolinguistics. Chapters cover a wide range of variables from morphology to morphosyntax, syntax, discourses and fluency. As a whole the book offer sharp new insights into the acquisition and use of French as a foreign language. Language, 1997 Authoring Selves Mary Elizabeth Curran, 2002 Twenty-fifth Language & Literature Seminar, 2000
