Multilingualism In Italy:

Multilingualism in Italy, Past and Present Anna Laura Lepschy, Arturo Tosi, 2002 This inaugural volume in a new series offers an overview of current research in Italian linguistics by specialists in Great Britain Topics range from the formation present state and future prospects of Italian dialects to the notion of standard in the context of the European tradition Further contributions cover the different strands of Renaissance Italian the problem of language death and the presence of Italian as lingua franca in the Mediterranean area Research into contemporary language includes gender issues in Italian lexicography and the ambivalent politically correct forms referring to minorities The volume concludes with studies on the translation of legal texts and on the status accorded to different languages within the European Union The book will be invaluable for university students of Italian or of linguistics and will provide a comprehensive survey for all interested in the Italian language and its history

Language and Society in a Changing Italy Arturo Tosi, 2001 This book examines the interrelation between language and society in contemporary Italy It aims to provide an up to date account of linguistic diversity social variation special codes and language varieties within Italian society and in situations of language contact both within and outside Italy

Italian Communities Abroad Paola Moreno, Margherita Di Salvo, 2018-01-23 This volume provides an overview of research on Italian communities abroad and thus represents an important contribution to the recent wave of paradigm renewal in the field of migration socio linguistics of Italian The contributors here are some of the most active and rigorous exponents of this renewal tendency and here they discuss new approaches and paradigms for the sociolinguistic study of migrations

City, Court, Academy Eva Del Soldato, Andrea Rizzi, 2017-10-02 This volume focuses on early modern Italy and some of its key multilingual zones Venice Florence and Rome It offers a novel insight into the interplay and dynamic exchange of languages in the Italian peninsula from the early fifteenth to the early seventeenth centuries In particular it examines the flexible linguistic practices of both the social and intellectual elite and the men and women from the street The point of departure of this project is the realization that most of the early modern speakers and authors demonstrate strong self awareness as multilingual communicators From the foul mouthed gondolier to the learned humanist language choice and use were carefully performed and often justified in order to overcome or affirm linguistic and social differences The urban social spaces the princely court and the elite centres of learning such as universities and academies all shared similar concerns about the value effectiveness and impact of languages As the contributions in this book demonstrate early modern communicators including gondoliers preachers humanists architects doctors of medicine translators and teachers made explicit and argued choices about their use of language The textual and oral performance of languages and self aware discussions on languages consolidated the identity of early modern Italian multilingual communities

Multilingualism in Italian Migrant Settings Luca Iezzi, 2024-09-26 Multilingualism in Italian Migrant Settings investigates the plural linguistic practices of the migrants in a particular refugee centre in Italy the CAS centri di accoglienza

straordinaria extraordinary refugee centre This book offers a practical and rigorous study of contact situations surrounding migrants from areas with complex repertoires Language is inherently connected to migration especially through its role as a principal tool for communication This volume places multilingualism in migratory contexts to comprehend how plurilingual migrants move freely between languages and to evaluate their role in the linguistic landscape of the host country This monograph will appeal to scholars specialising in sociolinguistics and contact linguistics The volume will also be informative for postgraduate students in the field of sociolinguistics with a focus on migration and language use Production, Trade, and Connectivity in Pre-Roman Italy Jeremy Armstrong, Sheira Cohen, 2022-04-25 This book explores the complex relationship between production trade and connectivity in pre Roman Italy confronting established ideas about the connections between people objects and ideas and highlighting how social change and community formation are rooted in individual interactions The volume engages with and builds upon recent paradigm shifts in the archaeology and history of the ancient Mediterranean which have centred the social and economic processes that produce communities It utilises a series of case studies encompassing the production trade and movement of objects and people to explore new models for how production is organised and the recursive relationship which exists between the cultural and economic spheres of human society The contributions address issues of agency and production at multiple scales of analysis from larger theoretical discussions of trade and identity across different regions to context specific explorations of production techniques and the distribution of material culture across the Italian peninsula Production Trade and Connectivity in Pre Roman Italy is intended for students and scholars interested in the archaeology and history of pre Roman and early Republican Italy but especially production trade community formation and identity Those interested in issues of cultural interaction and material change in the ancient Mediterranean world will find useful comparative examples and methodological approaches throughout The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Italo-Romance Dialects in the Linguistic Repertoires of Immigrants in Italy Francesco Goglia, Matthias Wolny, 2022-08-17 This edited book brings together experts on the sociolinguistics of immigration with a focus on the Italo Romance dialects Sociolinguistic research on immigrant communities in Italy has widely studied the acquisition and use of Italian as L2 by first generation immigrants the maintenance of immigrant languages and code switching between Italian and the immigrant languages However these studies have mostly ignored or neglected to investigate immigrant speakers use of Italo Romance dialects their awareness of the sociolinguistic situation of majority and minority languages and their attitudes towards them Given the important role of Italo Romance dialects in everyday communication and as a marker of regional identity this book aims to fill this gap and understand more about the role that these languages play in the linguistic repertoire of immigrants This book will be of interest to students and scholars of sociolinguistics minority languages multilingualism migration and social anthropology Language Planning and Policy in Europe Robert B. Kaplan, Richard B. Baldauf, Jr., 2005 This volume covers the language situation in the Baltic States Ireland and Italy explaining the linguistic diversity the historical and political contexts and the current language situation including language in education planning the role of the media the role of religion and the roles of non indigenous languages

Preparing Teachers to Work with Multilingual Learners Meike Wernicke, Svenja Hammer, Antje Hansen, Tobias Schroedler, 2021-04-15 This collection examines a diverse range of approaches to multilingualism in teacher education programmes across Europe and North America The authors investigate how pre service teachers are being prepared to work in multilingual contexts and discuss the key features of current pre service teacher education initiatives that address the increasing linguistic and cultural diversity evident in classrooms in their respective countries The focus is not only on migrant background learners but includes students from Indigenous autochthonous and heritage language backgrounds and speakers of minoritised regional varieties The chapters contextualise both historically and ideologically the specific initiatives and measures taken in the participating countries They also reveal the complexity of each educational context and the role that history language policies and institutional and programmatic priorities play in the development and implementation of a multilingual focus in teacher education In exploring how pre service teachers are being prepared to work in multilingual contexts the authors take a critical view of how multilingualism itself is conceptualised within and across contexts The book highlights the valuable impact that explicit instruction on theories of multilingualism pedagogies in multilingual classrooms and lived realities of multilingual children can have on the beliefs and practices of pre service teachers

Inclusive Language Michele Saraiva Carilo, 2024-12-30 Inclusive Language Educating for Sociolinguistics Agency within the Language Learning Classroom analyses standardised and non standardised uses of language that can be considered acts of sociolinguistic revolution from across a range of social media platforms Using examples from French Italian Portuguese and Spanish the book explores how linguistic inclusiveness related to race ethnicity religion gender the LGBTQIA community and people with disabilities is a bottom up phenomenon led mainly by members of marginalised socio cultural groups disseminated widely throughout social media and integrated or disregarded consciously in language classrooms Inclusive Language challenges the extreme prescriptivism of the languages analysed and contributes to the advancement of inclusive language within the language learning classroom by proposing frameworks such as critical digital ethnography for curriculum development and enactment guidelines for syllabus and material design as well as teaching strategies based on critical and intercultural pedagogies The book is a valuable resource for language educators and students at undergraduate and graduate level education courses with a particular interest in language teaching
