Multinationals And Industrial Property The Control Of The:

Multinationals and Industrial Property Gilles Y. Bertin, Sally Wyatt, 1988      American Multinationals and Japan Mark Mason, 2020-03-23 This pioneering study of United States direct investment in Japan will interest academic specialists business managers and government policymakers in America Japan and elsewhere Drawing on rich historical materials from both sides of the Pacific including corporate records and government documents never before made public Mason examines the development of both Japanese policy towards foreign investment and the strategic responses of American corporations This history is related in part through original case studies of Coca Cola Dow Chemical Ford General Motors International Business Machines Motorola Otis Elevator Texas Instruments Western Electric and Victor Talking Machine The book seeks to explain why a little foreign direct investment has entered modern Japan In contrast to the widely held view that emphasizes an alleged lack of effort on the part of foreign corporations this study finds that Japanese restrictions merit greater attention Many analysts of the modern Japanese political economy identify the Japanese government as the key actor in initiating such restrictions Mason finds that the influence of Japanese business has often proved more potent than these analysts suggest This book offers fresh insights into both the operation of the modern Japanese political economy and of its relations with the world economy      Multinational Enterprises and the Law Peter Muchlinski, 2021-02-18 Multinational Enterprises and the Law is the only comprehensive contemporary and interdisciplinary account of the techniques used to regulate multinational enterprises MNEs at the national regional and multilateral levels In addition it considers the effects of corporate self regulation and the impact of civil society and community groups upon the development of the legal order in this area The book has been thoroughly revised and updated for this third edition making it a definitive reference work for students researchers and practitioners of international economic law business corporate and commercial law development studies and international politics Split into four parts the book first deals with the conceptual basis for MNE regulation It explains the growth of MNEs their business and legal forms and the relationship between them and the effects of a globalized economy and society now increasingly challenged by recently revived nationalist economic policies upon the evolution of regulatory agendas in the field In addition the limits of national and regional jurisdiction over MNE activities are considered a question that arises throughout the specialized areas of regulation covered in the remainder of the book Part II covers the main areas of economic regulation including controls over and the liberalization of entry and establishment tax company and competition law and the impact of intellectual property rights on technology diffusion and transfer A specialized chapter on the regulation of multinational banks in the wake of the global financial crisis is new to this edition Part III introduces the social dimension of MNE regulation covering labour rights human rights and environmental issues Finally Part IV deals with the contribution of international investment law to MNE regulation and to the control of investment risks covering the main provisions found in international investment agreements their interpretation by international tribunals the process of investor state arbitration and how concerns over these developments are leading to reform proposals      Multinationals and Political Control John Robinson, 1983 Monograph on the growing trend towards political control regulation of multinational enterprises esp In Western Europe covering economic and legal aspects discusses international agreements and the role of UN EC and OECD in response to trade union and other interest group pressure regarding access to information taxation monopoly employment security labour relations code of practice strategy etc References      Managing Multinationals in the Middle East Wagdy M. Abdallah, 2000-11-30 This comprehensive analysis discusses how American and non American multinational corporations MNCs can plan manage and control their business activities and invest in four selected Middle East countries Egypt Kuwait Jordan Saudi Arabia and as a special unique feature a fifth country Israel Abdallah covers in detail the tax systems and regulations and their effect on business in the Middle East He looks at the future of the business environment and its effect on accounting in the Middle East during the first decades of the new century and examines the role of different local and international organizations that are helping to make the Middle East an excellent place to do business Combining the Arab countries with Israel into a single volume and writing in a remarkably clear style Abdallah offers practical guidelines for Americans and other MNCs potential international investors large accounting firms and even Middle East governments themselves He helps businesses conduct feasibility studies for joint venture startups in the Middle East countries covered helps MNCs manage their business more effectively and avoid conflicts with governments or cultural attitudes offers managers and officers an understanding of Middle East environmental factors that may significantly affect their businesses helps MNCs evaluate the performance of Middle East subsidiary managers helps MNCs develop strategic transfer pricing policies that fit Middle East countries and which go according to accounting systems and practices there as well as in their home countries and goes deeply into the accounting systems and practices of the countries under analysis here and compares them with both U S Generally Accepted Accounting Principles and International Accounting Standards This volume is of special value to corporate executives in or planning to enter the Middle East market graduate students and teachers of international business and accounting and practicing accountants with Middle East clients or who seek to acquire them
