Clarkson,Sarah A. Lichtman,2022-12-01 After World War II museum and gallery exhibitions industrial and trade fairs biennials triennials festivals and world s fairs increasingly came to be used as locations for the exercise of soft power for displays of cultural diplomacy between nations and as spaces for addressing areas of social and political contestation Exhibitions Beyond Boundaries opens with a substantial introduction to the key debates followed by case studies that advance the field of exhibition histories both geographically and methodologically focusing on postwar transnational exchange and the wider networks engendered through exhibitions Chapters trace relations across Africa Asia Europe the Middle East the Pacific and the United States of America drawing on a range of approaches and perspectives principally from art and design history but also from social economic and political history and museum studies Featured case studies include the presentation of African American Art at FESMAN 66 and FESTAC 77 the US s 1961 Small Industries Exhibition in Colombo Israel s early appearances at the Venice Biennale the Vatican Pavilion at the 1964 1965 New York World s Fair and Hong Kong s Pavilion at Expo 70 in Tokyo

of the Global, The Anna Maria Guasch,2019-11-26 When we talk about the geographical ecological ethnographic historical documentary and cosmopolitan turns in relation to the work of practitioners of contemporary art what exactly do we mean Are we talking about a reading strategy About an interpretive model as would be derived from the linguistic turn of the 1970s or rather about a stratigraphic structure that could be read across multiple cultural practices Do we wish to read one system by means of another system in a way that one nurtures the other so that it can open us up to other forms of being Or is it rather about a generative movement in which a new horizon emerges in the process leaving behind the practice that was its point of departure The recurrence of turn in place of style ism or tendency would ultimately respond to a clear urgency of the contemporary global world a movement characterised by aesthetic pluralism by the simultaneousness of various modi operandi and by a great multiplicity of languages that constantly change their state while having many features in common

And turn would also allow within the space of the contemporary of here and now a great diversity of stories from all around the world that should be confronted simultaneously in an intellectual outlook that is continuous and disjunctive essential to understanding the present as a whole Memory and Autobiography Leonor Arfuch,2020-08-04 This book by one of Latin America's leading cultural theorists examines the place of the subject and the role of biographical and autobiographical genres in contemporary culture Arfuch argues that the on going proliferation of private and intimate stories what she calls the biographical space can be seen as symptomatic of the impersonalizing dynamics of contemporary times Autobiographical genres however harbour an intersubjective dimension The I who speaks wants to be heard by another and the other who listens discovers in autobiography possible points of identification Autobiographical genres including those that border on fiction therefore become spaces in which the singularity of experience opens onto the collective and its historicity in ways that allow us to reflect on the ethical political and aesthetic dimensions not only of self representation but also of life itself Opening up debate through juxtaposition and dialogue Arfuch's own poetic writing moves freely from the Holocaust to Argentina's last dictatorship and its traumatic memories and then to the troubled borderlands between Mexico and the United States to show how artists rescue shards of memory that would otherwise be relegated to the dustbin of history In so doing she makes us see not only how challenging it is to represent past traumas and violence but also how vitally necessary it is to do so as a political strategy for combating the tides of forgetting and for finding ways of being in common material to the procedural and the conceptual this volume explores the practices of finishing in architecture within three currents surfaces projects and most broadly architectural times It will be of interest to students and instructors of architecture and design architectural historians and other scholars    Sites ,1986    Miralda Antoni Miralda,2010 This retrospective of the witty and pioneering art of Antoni Miralda born 1942 surveys the artist s 1960s Eat Art sculptures and his development of sculpture into performance for example his wedding of the statue of Christopher Columbus in Barcelona and the Statue of Liberty in New York    Antonio Gaudi; a Reappraisal Eusebi Casanelles,1965    Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1997-04    Annual Bibliography of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.).
