Murder In The Frame:

Murder in the Frame Dave Warner, 1999 Humorous murder mystery featuring reclusive former rock star Andrew The Lizard Zirk Director Buzz Shaw is strangled by a roll of film and The Lizard becomes involved in a murder hunt Sequel to Murder in the Groove Author's other publications include City of Light winner of the 1996 Western Australia Premier's Award for Fiction The Wrong Man Michael Mello, 2001 The author a law professor and critic of capital punishment describes the events associated with his client Crazy Joe Spaziano including how he was wrongly accused convicted and sentenced to death The Language of Suspense in Crime Fiction Reshmi Dutta-Flanders, 2017-04-26 This book introduces readers to linguistic stylistic analysis and combines both literary and linguistic analysis to explore suspense in crime fiction Employing critical linguistics discourse analysis and functional grammar it demonstrates that suspense in plot based stories is created through non linear causative presentation of the narrative The author investigates how plot sequence is manipulated to ensure the reader cannot resolve the order of events until the end of the tale From two dimensional circumstantial detection in mystery stories to three dimensional re evaluation of offender orientation she uses a linguistic based stylistic framework to analyse offender motive She also employs a discourse based frame analysis to examine the plot structure of crime stories for micro context and set up scenarios demonstrating that it is the unravelling of these devices that creates the suspense in murder mysteries and thrillers alike Finally she shows how grammaticization of the offending self reveals an embedded diegetic space in the offender engagement discourse provoking an intellectual and affective response and reshaping our overall outlook of the crime in the story This book will appeal to researchers and students from literary and non literary backgrounds looking for theoretical and practical advice on the linguistic stylistic approach to reading texts
