Nomos, Kosmos & Dike in Plutarch José Ribeiro Ferreira, Delfim F. Leão, Carlos A. Martins de Jesus, 2014-04-01 In September 2002 the University of Coimbra hosted for the first time a conference of the Research Theme Plutarch a research network created by several European universities in order to promote regular annual meetings of junior and senior scholars who share a common interest in Plutarch's work. The Coimbra meeting of 2002 was devoted to the fragments of Plutarch and the results of that event were published one year later in a volume edited by José Ribeiro Ferreira and Delfim Leão under the title Os fragmentos de Plutarco e a recepção da sua obra. Coimbra 2003. During the following years many other universities organized conferences of the Research Theme on a rotating basis until the event came back to Coimbra where the Portuguese section of the International Plutarch Society SoPlutarco hosted from 16 to 18 June 2011 the twelfth meeting of the network devoted this time to the subject Nomos kosmos and dike in Plutarch. The present volume comprises most of the contributions presented during the Coimbra meeting after having been submitted to a process of revision which involved the direct collaboration of the several regional sections of the Research Theme. Although the volume kept the multilingual diversity of the participants in the conference its structuring elements were composed in English in order to reinforce the coherence of the book and to enlarge the number of potential readers.

La desaparición a diario Estela Schindel, 2011-12-01 Realiza una minuciosa lectura de la prensa durante el terrorismo de Estado y expone su cotidiano acompañamiento a la masacre invisible de la desaparición forzada. Al mismo tiempo ayuda a comprender el clima dominante en la sociedad argentina en dictadura y las representaciones e imaginarios que permeaban los diarios más influyentes en la formación de opinión. El resultado es un análisis de las operaciones sociales que apoyadas en la rutinización del periodismo tejieron una trama de indiferencia en torno a las víctimas.
