Clash! Hazel Rose Markus, Alana Conner, 2014-06-24 If you fear that cultural, political and class differences are tearing America apart, read this important book. Jonathan Haidt, Ph.D., author of The Righteous Mind, Who will rule in the twenty-first century? Allegedly more disciplined Asians or allegedly more creative Westerners? Can women rocket up the corporate ladder without knocking off the men? How can poor kids get ahead when schools favor the rich? As our planet gets smaller, cultural conflicts are becoming fiercer. Rather than lamenting our multicultural worlds, Hazel Rose Markus and Alana Conner reveal how we can leverage our differences to mend the rifts in our workplaces, schools and relationships, as well as on the global stage. Provocative, witty and painstakingly researched, Clash! not only explains who we are, it also envisions who we could become

This book shows our common origins and reviews sources of conflict in the former Yugoslavia, Northern Ireland and the Middle East. It reveals how prejudice and stereotypes about racial and religious minorities create problems in our schools. Beginning with the human exodus out of Africa 60,000 years ago, tension arose among ethnic groups separated by geographic barriers. Changes in population, immigration, work and the role of religion are creating clashes in society and schools. Students from different cultural backgrounds are being thrown together as mass transportation and telecommunications shrink our world. Inclusive classrooms with respectful learning environments can be achieved when we identify the sources of tension that separate and divide us. Students are more alike than different. Knowing about our common origin and challenges will help teachers become
