Mulver Tongue:

The Death Watch Michael Cape-Meadows, 1927 Speaking in Tongues and Dancing Diaspora Mae G. Henderson, 2014-05-07 The oral tradition has always played an important role in African American literature ranging from works such as Zora Neale Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God to Toni Morrison's Beloved. These and countless other novels affirm the power of sonance and sound in the African American literary canon. Considering the wide swath of work in this powerful lineage in addition to its shared heritage with performance, Mae G. Henderson deploys her trope of speaking in tongues to theorize the preeminence of voice and narration in black women's literary performance through her reconstruction of a fundamentally spiritual practice as a critical concept for reading black women's writing dialogically and intertextually. The first half of the book is devoted to influential works of fiction as Henderson offers a series of spirited attentive readings of works by Zora Neale Hurston, Alice Walker, Sherley Anne Williams, Toni Morrison, Gayl Jones, and Nella Larsen. The second half shifts gears to consider the world of female African American performance, most notably in the figures of Josephine Baker and the video dancer. Drawing on the trope of dancing diaspora, Henderson proposes a model of theorizing based on performing testimony and critical witnessing. Throughout the book, Henderson draws on a history of black women not only in the Pentecostal Holiness Church but also within the traditions of classical Christian African and black diasporic spirituality and performance. Ultimately, Speaking in Tongues and Dancing Diaspora provides a deeply felt reflection on race and gender and their effects within the discourses of speaker, listener, and audience performer.

A Woman at War Molly Moore, 2010-06-15 A journalist who accompanied a senior commanding general as he led his troops into battle during Desert Storm gives an insider's view of the heroism and tragedy that she witnessed on the front line. Molly Moore, senior correspondent for The Washington Post, didn't think she'd be the only US journalist with a close-up view of the Gulf War, but when Lt Gen Walter Boomer, commander of the US Marine forces, invited her to shadow him while his troops planned and executed the invasion of Kuwait, that's exactly the situation she found herself in. The result of this brave journalistic effort is a vivid and dramatic account of the Gulf War, one that does justice to the diligent, gutsy marines that successfully drove Saddam Hussein's military from the country without romanticizing the horrors of battle. Tense, chaotic, and thrumming with emotional resonance, Moore's examination of the invasion offers indispensable insight into the 100-hour invasion that formed the overture to America's War on Terror.

List of Mines in Great Britain and the Isle of Man, 1907 The Films of Laura Mulvey and Peter Wollen, 2023-04-20 This collection of Laura Mulvey and Peter Wollen's film scripts vividly evokes the close connection between their influential work as theorists and their work as filmmakers. It includes scripts for all six of Mulvey and Wollen's collaborative films: Wollen's solo feature film Friendship's Death (1987) and Mulvey's later collaborations. Each text is followed by a new essay by a leading writer offering a critical interpretation of the corresponding film. The collection also includes Wollen's short story Friendship's Death (1976), the outlines for two unrealised Mulvey and Wollen collaborations.

and a selection of scanned working documents The scripts and essays collected in this volume trace the historical significance of a complex cinematic project that brought feminist semiotic and psychoanalytic concerns together with formal devices and strategies The book includes original contributions from Nora M Alter Kodwo Eshun Nicolas Helm Grovas Esther Leslie Laura Mulvey Volker Pantenburg Griselda Pollock B Ruby Rich and Sukhdev Sandhu Watching Women Sarah Kornfield,2025-04-21 The women on television series are spectacularly feminine They are the most beautiful doctors lawyers detectives scientists queens fashion writers moms Victorian ladies and witches ever seen Focusing on series that celebrate empowered women from mainstay crime dramas such as Bones 2005 2017 and The Rookie Feds 2022 2023 to teen dramas with series such as Sex Education 2019 2023 and Charmed 2018 2022 to romance series such as Bridgerton 2020 this book analyzes the onscreen portrayals of femme femininity and feminism Specifically this book maps the televisual trends that objectify femininity and those that visualize femininity as subject working to demonstrate how televisual style constructs femininity through its onscreen portrayals Speaking in Tongues Watson E.
