The Incredible Human Journey Alice Roberts, 2010-04-05 Alice Roberts has been travelling the world from Ethiopian desert to Malay peninsula and from Russian steppes to Amazon basin in order to understand the challenges that early humans faced as they tried to settle continents On her travels she has witnessed some of the daunting and brutal challenges our ancestors had to face mountains deserts oceans changing climates terrifying giant beasts and volcanoes But she discovers that perhaps the most serious threat of all came from other humans When our ancestors set out from Africa there were already two other species of human on the planet Neanderthal in Europe and Homo erectus in Asia Both contrary to popular perception were intelligent adept at making tools and weapons and were long adapted to their environments So Alice asks why did only Homo sapiens survive Part detective story part travelogue and drawing on the latest genetic and archaeological discoveries Alice examines how our ancestors evolved physically in response to these challenges finding out how our colour shape size diet disease resistance and even athletic ability have been shaped by the range of environments that our ancestors had to survive She also relates how astonishingly closely related we all are As a lecturer in Anatomy at Bristol University Alice Roberts is eminently qualified to write this book As a talented artist she is perfectly qualified to illustrate it and dotted throughout this lively book are many of the sketches and photographs from her travels Deep Time Dreaming Billy Griffiths, 2018-02-26 People would have known about Australia before they saw it Smoke billowing above the sea spoke of a land that lay beyond the horizon A dense cloud of migrating birds may have pointed the way But the first Australians were voyaging into the unknown Soon after Billy Griffiths joins his first archaeological dig as camp manager and cook he is hooked Equipped with a historian's inquiring mind he embarks on a journey through time seeking to understand the extraordinary deep history of the Australian continent Deep Time Dreaming is the passionate product of that journey It investigates a twin revolution the reassertion of Aboriginal identity in the second half of the twentieth century and the uncovering of the traces of ancient Australia It explores what it means to live in a place of great antiquity with its complex questions of ownership and belonging It is about a slow shift in national consciousness the deep time dreaming that has changed the way many of us relate to this continent and its enduring dynamic human history John Mulvaney Book Award Winner Ernest Scott Prize Winner NSW Premier's Literary Awards Winner Book of the Year NSW Premier's Literary Awards Winner Douglas Stewart Prize for Non fiction Victorian Premier's Literary Awards Highly Commended Queensland Literary Awards Shortlisted Prime Minister's Literary Awards Shortlisted Educational Publishing Awards Shortlisted Australian Book Industry Awards Longlisted CHASS Book Prize Longlisted What a revelatory work If you wish to hear the voice of our continent's history before the written word Deep Time Dreaming is a must read The freshest most important book about our past in years Tim Flannery Once every generation a book comes along that marks the emergence of a powerful new literary voice and shifts our understanding of the nation's past Billy Griffiths Deep Time Dreaming is one such book Deeply researched creatively conceived and beautifully written it charts the expansion of archaeological knowledge in Australia for the first time No other book has managed to convey the mystery and intricacy of Indigenous antiquity in quite the same way Read it it will change the way you see Australian history Mark McKenna historian Billy Griffiths Deep Time Dreaming Uncovering Ancient Australia is a remarkable book and one destined I believe to become a modern classic of Australian history writing Written in vivid evocative prose this book will grip both the expert and the general reader alike Iain McCalman author of The Reef A Passionate History The Great Barrier Reef from Captain Cook to Climate Change Girt By Sea Mungo MacCallum,2002-03-01 In Girt By Sea Mungo MacCallum provides a devastating account of the Howard government's treatment of the refugees as well as delineating the factors in Australian history which have worked towards prejudice and those which have worked against it ranging from Calwell's postwar immigration policy to the recent revelations of beat ups and distortions in the 2001 election campaign This is a powerful account of how the government played on what was ultimately the race issue In an essay which is by terms witty dry and bitingly understated Mungo MacCallum asks what epithets are appropriate for a prime minister who has brought us to this pass He also raises the question of whether Australia's contemporary treatment of refugees has anything in common with the sane and decent policies that have characterised the better moments in our history it will take a long time to recover from the campaign of hate and fear which was deemed to be necessary to return the Howard government in the first year of the new millennium Mungo MacCallum Girt By Sea This most cold eyed of one time Canberra chroniclers brings to this story all his wit and dryness and power of mind It's a sad tale though it is everywhere enlivened by MacCallum's tendency to suggest that spades really are bloody shovels at the end of the day Peter Craven A document of immense power MacCallum's essay will stand as a record of Australia's shame and depravity It will haunt us Julian Burnside Australian Book Review Mungo's assertion that Howard is a man with no vision only division to his name and his recognition that Howard will never have the approval of those elites he so gratuitously desires is a blistering strike at the Liberal man Geoff Parkes Journal of Australian Studies Mungo MacCallum has long been one of Australia's most influential and entertaining political journalists in a career spanning more than four decades Mungo has worked with the Australian the Age the Financial Review Sydney Morning Herald and numerous magazines as well as the ABC SBS Channel Nine and Channel Ten His books include the bestselling Mungo The Man Who Laughs The Good the Bad and the Unlikely Australia's Prime Ministers and The Whitlam Mob Reframing Indigenous Biography Shino Konishi,Malcolm Allbrook,Tom Griffiths,2024-11-11 This book explores the history practice and possibilities of writing about the lives of First Nations peoples in Australia as well as Aotearoa New Zealand North America and the Pacific This interdisciplinary collection recognises the limitations of Western biographical conventions for writing Indigenous long and short form biographies Through a series of diverse life stories of both historical and contemporary First Nations figures this book investigates innovative ways to ameliorate the challenges we face in recovering the stories of

Indigenous people and reimagining their lives in productive new ways Many of the chapters in this collection are deeply reflective aiming not just to relate the life story of an individual but also to reflect on the archival intellectual and emotional journeys that biographers undertake in researching Indigenous biography This volume will be of value to scholars and students interested in Indigenous Studies biography history literature creative writing archaeology and colonial and postcolonial studies

Mungo Park's Ghost Dane Kennedy, 2024-01-25 In 1816 the British sent two large ambitious expeditions to Africa one to follow the Niger River to its outlet the other to trace the Congo River to its source Their shared goal was to complete the unfinished mission of Mungo Park who had disappeared during a journey to determine whether the Niger and the Congo were the same river Both quests ended disastrously and were soon forgotten Telling the full story of these failed expeditions for the first time Dane Kennedy argues that they provide fresh insight into British ambitions in Africa He places them in the contexts of the imperial rivalry with France the slave trade and the abolition campaign and the independent power wielded by African states and peoples He also shows that they were haunted by the same sense of hubris that would afflict many of the expeditions that followed This hubris was Mungo Park's ghost

From the Ochres of Mungo Marji Hill, Neil McLeod, 1984 Overview of traditional themes forms and styles from earliest archaeological evidence including body painting woodcarving sculpture basketry baobab nut carving stone arrangement to modern innovations in pottery painting in European tradition and silk screen printing

Southern Asia, Australia, and the Search for Human Origins Robin Dennell, Martin Porr, 2014-02-24 This is the first book to focus on the role of Southern Asia and Australia in our understanding of modern human origins and the expansion of Homo sapiens between East Africa and Australia before 30 000 years ago With contributions from leading experts that take into account the latest archaeological evidence from India and Southeast Asia this volume critically reviews current models of the timing and character of the spread of modern humans out of Africa It also demonstrates that the evidence from Australasia should receive much wider and more serious consideration in its own right if we want to understand how our species achieved its global distribution Critically examining the Out of Africa model this book emphasises the context and variability of the global evidence in the search for human origins

Invading Australia

Peter Stanley,2008-06-03 1942 was a key year in Australia s history As its people had so long feared

White Australia an outpost of empire seemed about to be invaded by the Japanese In that one year Darwin was bombed submarines torpedoed ships in Sydney Harbour and Australian Militiamen died on the Kokoda Trail Each year more and more Australians celebrate Anzac Day and honour the lives of those who fought for their country There is even a push to create a new public holiday in remembrance and celebration of the Battle for Australia But was there ever really such a battle and how close did Australia actually come to being invaded Invading Australia provides a comprehensive thorough and well argued examination of these and other pertinent questions Peter Stanley writes compellingly about Australian attitudes to Japan before during and after World War II and uses archival sources to discuss Japan s war plans early in 1942 He also shows that rather than a Battle for Australia there was a worldwide fight for freedom and democracy that has allowed the West to enjoy great prosperity in the decades since 1945 Recovering the Tracks David Horton,1991 See published version for annotation

Our Biosphere Under Threat Stephen Vickers Boyden,1990 A biohistorical account of the interaction between the natural systems of the earth and its human occupants This book is based on Part 1 of the TFundamental Questions Program of the Centre for Resource and Environmental Studies at the Australian National University Concludes with a section on challenges and opportunities Also contains reference notes a detailed bibliography and a glossary
