Murder Checks Inn Camille Sharp, 2024-08-15 A beautiful oasis in scenic northern Michigan, Golden Glen is teeming with orchards, wineries, and charm. Murder wasn't in the brochure. Maiden Harlow leads a peaceful life helping to run her family's inn, Harlow House. At least it was peaceful until an unpopular guest is violently killed and left in his locked and undisturbed room while an inn full of guests sleep peacefully. No one claims to have heard or seen anything. Throw feuding guests, nosy friends, and a bank robbery into the mix, and things start to get dangerously complicated. Maiden is up to her neck in trouble as rumors spread and she finds herself under suspicion by Captain McAlister, the new head of the local police department. Sparks fly and tempers clash, but then a second murder raises the stakes even further. With the inn crawling with cops and possibly a murderer, their reputation and future are on the line. Armed with an observant mind, an unusually sharp memory, and a lot of eccentric friends, Maiden is on the case. Between keeping her family safe, the guests calm, and grappling with her unfortunate habit of accidentally hitting on the new cop every time they meet, Maiden's hands are full. Despite that, she needs to find the killer before her family's business is ruined or someone else ends up dead. If you love funny, romantic mysteries with clever heroines and twisty plots, you'll love Murder Checks Inn. Grab your copy and enjoy!
