

How to STACK A HABIT

Identify existing habits

if you already have a habit of drinking a glass of water in the morning, take note of it.

Determine your goal

Let's say your goal is to improve your physical fitness and incorporate exercise into your routine.

Choose an anchor habit

Use your existing habit as a trigger. After drinking your morning glass of water, perform a 5-minute stretching routine.

Select a new habit to stack

Add a new habit that complements your goal. After stretching, follow it up with a 10-minute workout session.

Start small and build momentum

Begin with manageable actions. Gradually increase the duration or intensity of your workouts as you become more comfortable.

Remember, small changes can lead to big results. Start habit stacking now and witness the power of positive routines in your daily life.

How to Be Part of The 8% That Actually Follows Through With Their New Year's Resolution Even if You're the Laziest Person You Know

Are you sick and tired of failing to build good habits and break bad ones? Have you put countless hours of effort just to see it all crumble within a few weeks? Do you finally want to say goodbye to negative cravings, impulses, addictions, and see long term change? If you do, you've come to the right place. The truth is, mastering your habits doesn't have to be difficult and draining. You may have tried using your motivation or will power and noticed it didn't last too long. This is because you weren't looking at the root cause of your problem. When you do, things get a whole lot easier. Behavior change experts from the National Institute of Health say the first step to changing your habits is to build awareness around them. The next step, according to the leading psychologist at NYU, is to create an effective plan beforehand. This will help you know when and where to act. That's all it takes. Custom made plans will make you 2-6x more likely to take action. Which means you can create new habits without accidentally falling back to your old ways. This is how you will achieve all of your health, financial, career, and personal goals. All without wasting a single bit of your precious time, money, and energy.
