

Paint Your Day

Paint your days in the hues of your heart

Choose the crayons of your actions, pick the brushes of your determination, perseverance, and ambitions

Recognize your taste, to paint your fate

Adorn your life with colorful days
Your life will wear all the days you paint

Let it shine and smile with the rainbow of your soul's colors

Window Open Mary Paulson, 2021-10 There are few poets who have such accurate insight into one's emotional interior life as Mary Paulson in her debut chapbook Her work treads a tightrope at once interrogating both the human heart and exploring the crevices of the brain and its deep complexities Each poem delves into the work's ultimate purpose to investigate what it is that drives our decisions the ways we often trip often over ourselves in an ardent honest pursuit toward love and how crazy unforeseen circumstances unravel in that process Courtney King Kampa There has to be room for all of it Mary Paulson writes in Ars Poetica and Paint the Window Open is remarkable in its capacity With razorblade wit these poems lay bare the contradictory multitudes our intimate lives contain Here is a voice that can say I m vile and mean it And in the next breath can say I m human luminous a flash like a firefly and mean that just as much It s a voice crackling with hunger the hunger for love and meaning the hunger of kerosene for fire the hunger to be free from too many hungry ghosts And yet in all this yearning there s triumph too these poems are so funny so sorrowful so fiercely alive that I find myself coming back to them again and again and finding something new each time This is a truly beautiful book Jonathan McClure     A

Moirira Andrew, 1996     Paint a Poem Moirira Andrew, 1996 This book is a comprehensive collection of ideas for writing poetry with children from five to eleven years together with inspiring presentation and display     How to Paint Sunlight Lawrence Ferlinghetti, 2002 This new collection of poems by Ferlinghetti is graced with a short introduction by the poet For more than 50 years Ferlinghetti has been illuminating both the everyday and the unusual all the while keeping true to his original dictum of speaking in a way accessible to everyone     Behind the Paint Marve Hendry, 2021-02-09 Behind the Paint is a collection of poems dealing with behind the scenes emotions and daily occurrences It s about sentimental states thoughts and habits that emerge as we go about our daily lives The collection has something for everyone focusing on various hidden or subconscious urges with some parts alluding to our current social and spiritual challenges The book is divided into five sections with each section depicting a different perspective Each section takes you on a distinct journey in hopes of giving you the opportunity to live vicariously through every word sentence and emotion     The Birth to Presence Jean-Luc Nancy, 1993 The epoch of representation is as old as the West Indeed representation is the West understood as what at once designates and expands its own limits But what comes after the West What comes after representation s disclosure of its own limit The central problem posed in these essays collected from over a decade of work is how in the wake of Western ontologies to conceive the coming the birth that characterizes being We are now at the limit of representation where objects as we experience them have been show to be merely objects of representation or rather of presentation since there is nothing to re present The first part of this book Existence asks how today one can give sense of meaning to existence as such arguing that existence itself as it comes nude into the world must now be our sense In examining what this birth to presence might be we should not ask what presence is rather we should conceive presence as presence to someone including to presence itself This birth is not the constitution of an identity but the endless departure of an identity from and from within its other or others Its coming is not desire but jouissance the joy of averring oneself to be continually in the state of being born a rejoicing of birth a birth of rejoicing The second section Poetry asks What art exposes this In writing in the voice in painting And what if art is exposed to it How does it inscribe or rather exscribe in a term the book develops the coming existence as such The author s trajectory in this book crosses those of Hegel Schlegel Baudelaire Nietzsche Freud and Heidegger in their comments on art and politics existence and corporeality everyday life and its modes of existence and ecstasy An analysis that dares this crossing involves all the varied accounts of existence political as well as philosophical and all the realms of poverty
