Saremi, 2001 A Painted Field Robin Robertson, 1999 Handbook on German Military Forces Bob Carruthers, 2013-05-15 The Handbook On German Military Forces is an indispensable primary reference source for historians and enthusiasts In 1945 the Allies were still engaged in bitter fighting against stiff resistance from the German armies in the west The US War Department was determined to do its best to equip the US forces fighting the Germans in the field with as much knowledge as possible March 1945 saw the issue of an astonishing document entitled the Handbook On German Military Forces This was a truly remarkable work of intelligence gathering which formed a vast compendium of all the relevant knowledge amassed on the German Wehrmacht Amazingly accurate and comprehensive the Handbook ran to over six hundred pages and was designed to equip commanders in the field with everything they were likely to need to know about the German forces The Handbook remained classified until 1953 and then slipped into obscurity This new paperback reprint rescues this great work from obscurity covering the psychology organisation tactics and operational aspects of the German forces The weapons machines aircraft and uniforms of the German forces are also documented within the Handbook The Handbook On German Military Forces is a fascinating primary reference source for historians and enthusiasts alike providing an invaluable insight into the detail of the German Army which is still an unrivaled source of information today

Marshall Plan Modernism Jaleh Mansoor, 2016-09-02 Focusing on artwork by Lucio Fontana Alberto Burri and Piero Manzoni Jaleh Mansoor demonstrates and reveals how abstract painting especially the monochrome broke with fascist associated futurism and functioned as an index of social transition in postwar Italy Mansoor refuses to read the singularly striking formal and procedural violence of Fontana's slit canvasses Burri's burnt and exploded plastics and Manzoni's achromes as metaphors of traumatic memories of World War II Rather she locates the motivation for this violence in the history of the medium of painting and in the economic history of postwar Italy Reconfiguring the relationship between politics and aesthetics Mansoor illuminates how the monochrome's reemergence reflected Fontana Burri and Manzoni's aesthetic and political critique of the Marshall Plan's economic warfare and growing American hegemony It also anticipated the struggles in Italy's factories classrooms and streets that gave rise to Autonomia in the 1960s Marshall Plan Modernism refigures our understanding of modernist painting as a project about labor and the geopolitics of postwar reconstruction during the Italian Miracle
