International Protection of Minority Rights Javaid Rehman,2021-10-05 The issue of minority rights continues to occupy a sensitive position in international law Historical as well as contemporary events show that the subject is also capable of engulfing the international community as a whole The contention of the present study is that international law is in itself a difficult medium for providing adequate rights for minorities and for effectively safeguarding those rights This volume analyses the weaknesses in the international protection of minority rights through a detailed examination of the practices and policies of Pakistan Thought provoking and original in its approach this volume will prove to be of enormous value to international human rights lawyers and to scholars engaged in the study of minority rights in South Asia and Pakistan

New Perspectives on Pakistan's Political Economy Matthew McCartney,S. Akbar Zaidi,2019-09-19 This volume makes a major intervention in the debates around the nature of the political economy of Pakistan focusing on its contemporary social dynamics This is the first comprehensive academic analysis of Pakistan s political economy after thirty five years and addresses issues of state class and society examining gender the middle classes the media the bazaar economy urban spaces and the new elite The book goes beyond the contemporary obsession with terrorism and extremism political Islam and simple civilian military relations and looks at modern day Pakistan through the lens of varied academic disciplines

It not only brings together new work by some emerging scholars but also formulates a new political economy for the country reflecting the contemporary reality and diversification in the social sciences in Pakistan. The chapters dynamically and dialectically capture emergent processes and trends in framing Pakistan's political economy and invite scholars to engage with and move beyond these concerns and issues. Pakistan Ishrat Husain, 1999. An insightful case study of Pakistan's economic development during the past fifty years which demonstrates that the benefit of this development has predominantly affected a small class of elites while the majority of the population remains illiterate, poor and backward. Pakistan's Economic Journey Fasih Uddin, M. Akram Swati, 2006. The Dickinson Papers Mark Ragg, 2006. A priceless exhibition of the papers of poet Emily Dickinson goes missing on arrival in Sydney. Jock, a lonely single father who loves poems, books and stories of all kinds, starts to follow the newspaper articles about the theft and finds himself increasingly drawn to the mysterious and brilliant Lola, the curator of the exhibition. Both nursing wounded hearts and damaged lives, slowly they begin to reach out to each other through letters, emails and occasional encounters. When the police start receiving clues from the thief marked on Sydney road maps, Jock finds himself drawn into the hunt. But in a city with a story on every street corner, can he tell the hints from the red herrings in time to find the exhibition and win Lola's heart? A quirky and engaging novel. THE DICKINSON PAPERS is at once a modern love story, a tribute to a great poet and a love letter to the city of Sydney.

Bureaucracy and Pro-poor Change Ali Cheema, 2006. APAIS 1991: Australian public affairs information service, Journal of the Asiatic Society of Bangladesh, 1994. Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1991. Journal of Economic Literature, 1987. Islam in the Subcontinent Mushirul Hasan, 2002. This is a painstakingly researched and passionately written account of the ideas and movements that constitute the Indian Muslim's experiences over the last two centuries. Divided into five sections, the book analyses the complex processes of identity formation, the politicization of Islam and the demand for a separate Muslim nation based upon the most reliable and up-to-date research and interpretation. This book is an indispensable reference for students of Islam, modernism and civilizational encounters in general and Indian history and nationalism in particular. Collected Seminar Papers on the Politics of Separatism, October 1974-June 1975 University of London.
