Paean To Place:

Paean to Place Lorine Niedecker, Karl Young, 2003 Poetry William Carlos Williams proclaimed Lorine Niedecker the Emily Dickinson of our time It s taken a while for more than a handful of poets with extremely acute ears and sensibilities to see how true that is This is something that comes from the poetry itself not in the projection of Dickinson s semi mythical reclusiveness onto Niedecker but in the way both women wrote poetry that can be read for a lifetime without losing its magic or becoming dull This book produced as a celebration of the author s 100th birthday is the first to follow Niedecker s conception of how her most intensely autobiographical poem should be presented This is the first time Niedecker s work has been thus treated in print The work chronicles her life and the lives of her parents all three of which included great sorrow and loss but Niedecker s clarity and sparkling verse never descend into sentimentality bringing out that which makes life worth living despite its disasters Edited by Cid Corman Late Modernism and the Poetics of Place Neal

Alexander, 2022-02-17 This monograph offers a decisive reappraisal of both the literary history and the literary geography of Anglophone modernism by focusing attention on poetry from both sides of the Atlantic Where recent studies of late modernism tend to regard it as an inter war or mid century phenomenon this book contends that the period 1945 1975 marks a major phase of experiment and achievement in late modernist poetry The author contends that what distinguishes the work of many late modernist poets such as Gwendolyn Brooks Basil Bunting W S Graham David Jones Lorine Niedecker and Charles Olson during this period is its multi layered poetics of place In part he suggests this is due to the engagement of individual writers with contemporary developments in human and physical geography It is also manifest in the tendency of late modernist poets to foreground the cultural significance of regional and non metropolitan places in their texts

Geopoetics in Practice Eric Magrane, Linda Russo, Sarah de Leeuw, Craig Santos Perez, 2019-12-05 This breakthrough book examines dynamic intersections of poetics and geography Gathering the essays of an international cohort whose work converges at the crossroads of poetics and the material world Geopoetics in Practice offers insights into poetry place ecology and writing the world through a critical creative geographic lens This collection approaches geopoetics as a practice by bringing together contemporary geographers poets and artists who contribute their research methodologies and creative writing The 24 chapters divided into the sections Documenting Reading and Intervening poetically engage discourses about space power difference and landscape as well as about human non human and more than human relationships with Earth Key explorations of this edited volume include how poets engage with geographical phenomena through poetry and how geographers use creativity to explore space place and environment This book makes a major contribution to the geohumanities and creative geographies by presenting geopoetics as a practice that compels its agents to take action It will appeal to academics and students in the fields of creative writing literature geography and the environmental and spatial humanities as well as to readers from outside of the academy interested in where poetry and place overlap Maine's Place in the Environmental Imagination Michael D. Burke, 2020-12-15 The essays in Maine's Place in the Environmental Imagination address from a variety of perspectives how Maine's unique identity among the states of the United States has been formed and what that identity is. A place that is still imagined by others primarily through its environmental associations its nature and landscape rather than through its social arrangements and human history. The collection attempts a foundational study not of a regional literature but of a state literature. In doing so it makes the case that Maine was constructed imaginatively and environmentally through its literature and that this image is the one that endures even now. The essays suggest how this identity was formed by discussing writings ranging from the recently recovered work of Joseph Nicolar a member of the Penobscot Nation in the late 19th century to the contemporary Maine author Carolyn Chute from Thoreau's canonical essay Ktaadn to the modernist E. B. White whose works have an underappreciated environmental project. Contributors include scholars Nathaniel Lewis Annette Kolodny Linda Kornasky Daniel Malachuk Kent Ryden and Lynn Wake.

The Poetics of Postmodernist and Neoromantic Nature Poetry George Leslie Hart, 1997 A Study of the Greek Pæan Arthur Fairbanks, 1900 Whatsoever Things are Lovely Foy Valentine, 2004 Cornell Studies in Classical Philology, 1900 Space, Place, and Landscape in Ancient Greek Literature and Culture Kate Gilhuly, Nancy Worman, 2014-09-22 This book brings together a collection of original essays that engage with cultural geography and landscape studies to produce new ways of understanding place space and landscape in Greek literature from the fifth and fourth centuries BCE. The authors draw on an eclectic collection of contemporary approaches to bring the study of ancient Greek literature into dialogue with the burgeoning discussion of spatial theory in the humanities. The essays in this volume treat a variety of textual spaces from the intimate to the expansive: the bedroom ritual space the law courts theatrical space the poetics of the city and the landscape of war. And yet all of the contributions are united by an interest in recuperating some of the many ways in which the ancient Greeks in the archaic and classical periods invested places with meaning and in how the representation of place links texts to social practices. New Chapters in the History of Greek Literature Eric Arthur Barber, John Undersnell Powell, 1921 Women's Poetry Jo Gill, 2007 Women's Poetry offers a study of key texts poets and issues analysing commonalities and differences across a range of writers periods and forms New Chapters in the History of Greek Literature, Second Series John Undersnell Powell, Eric Arthur Barber, 1921 New Chapters in the History of Greek Literature John Undersnell Powell, Eric Arthur Barber, 1921 No Sacred Place Ivan Hugh Walters, 2011-09-12 No Sacred Place offers a critical study of social injustice done at the behest of law and religion in the context of cultural politics in Christianized societies. Author Ivan Walters theorizes the causes of social injustice and oppression of marginalized peoples as found in the law and Christian theology in both modern and post modern cultural politics. He advances a theory of redemption through a transgressive discourse that challenges most of the traditional assumptions of Eurocentric Christianity and jurisprudence. Walters sees law and religion as two powerful politico cultural institutions that must be kept in check in order to protect the rights of those who are marginalized by the society History reveals a litany of horrors that have been perpetrated on marginalized peoples by both religious bigotry and the law Through theological and jurisprudential theoretical inquiries Walters advocates a thesis of at one ment through the historical Christus instead of the Christianitys bastardized version of the Christus His thesis then is grounded in a theory of challenge and resistance to oppression and the advocacy of the possibilities for redemption from oppression No Sacred Place challenges the church in particular and society in general to create a new social order and right the wrongs of the current system New Chapters in the History of Greek Literature: Recent discoveries in Greek poetry and prose of the fourth and following centuries B.C John Undershell Powell, Eric Arthur Barber, 1921 The Antioch Review John Donald Kingsley, 2004 A Critical Edition of the Collected Poems of Lorine Niedecker Tandy Jennifer Sturgeon, 1990 American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Vol. 2 (LOA #116) Edward Estlin Cummings, 2000-03-20 Anthology of poems by 20th century American poets From the Other Side of the Century Douglas Messerli, 1994 Since 1970 many readers have waited for another anthology that incorporates poets writing after Donald Allen s 1960 The New American Poetry Organized into somewhat arbitrary and non rigid categories these selections present poetry that has reshaped our language culture and thought for the past 30 years My Life by Water Lorine Niedecker, 1970
