Marriage: What Christians Should Know Creation Liberty Evangelism, Christopher J.E. Johnson, 2013-09-16 What a Christian needs to understand about modern marriages before they jump in head first      Lady Danger Sarah McKerrigan, 2008-12-21 Raised to fear no man Deirdre of Rivenloch never backs down from a clash of steel or a threat to her lands and family But when she tricks Sir Pagan Cameliard into marrying her in order to save her younger sister she is faced with a new kind of enemy a husband who would turn her resistance into a fire that heats her blood and who would use all his cunning to make her cry his name in ultimate abandon For Pagan has made his own wedding vow he will best his sword wielding bride in the field by day and make her surrender in his arms by night Her heart will be his even if it means being conquered by hers      THE BRIDE OF CHRIST PAUL CARUS, 1908      The Unveiling of love Tamara Leigh, 2018-12-28 12th century England Two men vie for the throne King Stephen the usurper and young Duke Henry the rightful heir Amid civil and private wars alliances are forged loyalties are betrayed families are divided and marriages are made For four years Lady Annyn Bretanne has trained at arms with one end in mind to avenge her brother's murder as God has not deemed it worthy to do Disguised as a squire she sets off to exact revenge on a man known only by his surname Wulfrith But when she holds his fate in her hands her will wavers and her heart whispers that her enemy may not be an enemy after all Baron Wulfrith renowned trainer of knights allows no women within his walls for the distraction they breed What he never expects is that the impetuous young man sent to train under him is a woman who seeks his death nor that her unveiling will test his faith and distract the warrior from his purpose      What Every Man and Woman Should Know about the Bible ... Sidney Calhoun Tapp, 1917      Angels and Earthly Creatures Claire M. Waters, 2013-06-15 Texts by for and about preachers from the twelfth to the fourteenth centuries reveal an intense interest in the preacher's human nature and its intersection with his angelic role Far from simply denigrating embodiment or excluding it from consideration these works recognize its centrality to the office of preacher and the ways in which preachers like Christ needed humanness to make their performance of doctrine effective for their audiences At the same time the texts warned of the preacher's susceptibility to the fleshly failings of lust vainglory deception and greed Preaching's problematic juxtaposition of the earthly and the spiritual made images of women preachers real and fictional key to understanding and exploiting the power as well as the dangers of the feminized flesh Addressing the underexamined bodies of the clergy in light of both medieval and modern discussions of female authority and the body of Christ in medieval culture Angels and Earthly Creatures reinserts women into the history of preaching and brings together discourses that would have been intertwined in the Middle Ages but are often treated separately by scholars The examination of handbooks for preachers as literary texts also demonstrates their extensive interaction with secular literary traditions explored here with particular reference to Chaucer's Canterbury Tales Through a close and insightful reading of a wide variety of texts and figures including Hildegard of Bingen Birgitta of Sweden and Catherine of Siena Waters offers an original examination of the preacher's unique role as an intermediary standing between heaven and earth between God and people participating in and responsible to both sides of that divide Silver Bough Volume 2 F. Marian McNeill, 2013-08-20 The Silver Bough is an indispensable treasury of Scottish culture universally acknowledged as a classic of literature The author F. Marian McNeill succeeded in capturing and bringing to life many traditions and customs of old before they died out or were influenced by the modern era The Silver Branch of the sacred apple tree laden with crystal blossoms of golden fruit is in Celtic mythology the equivalent of the Golden Bough of classical mythology the symbolic bond between the world we know and the Otherworld In the first volume of the Silver Bough the author deals generally with Scottish folk lore and folk belief with chapters on ethnic origins the Druids the Celtic gods the slow transition to Christianity magic the fairy faith second sight selkies changelings and the witch cult In this and the subsequent volumes she explores in more depth the foundations of many of these beliefs and rituals through the Calendar of Scottish national festivals in which we find enshrined many of the fascinating folk customs of our ancestors This second volume explores the opening seasons of the Calendar of Scottish National Festivals from the Festivals of Spring to the immemorial rites associated with Autumn Harvesting As man makes greater and greater advances in the understanding and control of his physical environment the river between the known and the unknown gradually changes its course and the subjects of the simpler beliefs of former times become part of the new territory of knowledge The Silver Bough maps out the old course of the waterway that in Celtic belief winds between here and beyond and reveals the very roots of the Scottish people's distinctive customs and way of life The Silver Bough is a large and important work which involved many years of research into both living and recorded lore Its genesis lies perhaps in the author's subconscious need to reconcile the old primitive world she had glimpsed in childhood with the sophisticated modern world she later entered e I do not believe that you can exaggerate the importance of the preservation of old ways and customs and all those little things which bind a man to his native place Today we live in difficult times The steam roller of progress is flattening out many of our old institutions and there is a danger of a general decline in idiom and distinctive quality in our Scottish life The only way to counteract this peril is to preserve jealously all these elder things which are bone of our bone and flesh of our flesh For remember no man can face the future with courage and confidence unless it is solidly founded upon the past And conversely no problem will be too hard no situation too strange if we can link it with what we know and love F.
