Petty,2017-09-11 Through an international range of case studies from the 1870s to the present this volume analyzes strategies of display in department stores and modern retail spaces Established scholars and emerging researchers working within a range of disciplinary contexts and historiographical traditions shed light on what constitutes modern retail and the ways in which interior designers architects and artists have built or transformed their practice in response to the commercial context      Furniture & Interiors of the 1940s Anne Bony,2003 The 1940s marked a period of transition in interior design the quarrel between ancient and modern was outdated the combination of function and art was essential and interior designers were more focused on new creations rather than on post war reconstruction The style of this period exhibits all the contradictions that arise from a society that was in a general state of shock unsure of what the future would hold Exemplary cabinet making marks the period featuring famous names like T H Robsjohn Gibbing and George Nelson from the United States In France Adnet Arbus Dominique Kohlmann Jallot and Leleu produced sumptuous ensembles with beautiful detailing Furniture and Interiors of the 1940s features the work of numerous designers in 300 archival images and recent color photographs that shed new light on this transitional period in design as it evolved both in Europe and in the United States

Architecture and Design ,1959      Interior Design ,1977      A Dark, a Light, a Bright Alexa Griffith Winton,Susan Brown,2023-01-01 The first major publication devoted to weaver and designer Dorothy Liebes reinstating her as one of the most influential American designers of the twentieth century At the time of her death Dorothy Liebes 1897 1972 was called the greatest modern weaver and the mother of the twentieth century palette As a weaver she developed a distinctive combination of unusual materials lavish textures and brilliant colors that came to be known as the Liebes Look Yet despite her prolific career and recognition during her lifetime Liebes is today considerably less well known than the men with whom she often collaborated including Frank Lloyd Wright Henry Dreyfuss and Edward Durrell Stone Her legacy also suffered due to the inability of the black and white photography of the period to represent her richly colored and textured works

Extensively researched and illustrated with full color accurate reproductions this important publication examines Liebes s widespread impact on twentieth century design Essays explore major milestones of her career including her close collaborations with major interior designers and architects to create custom textiles the innovative and experimental design studio where she explored new and unusual materials her use of fabrics to enhance interior lighting and her collaborations with fashion designers including Clare Potter and Bonnie Cashin Ultimately this book reinstates Liebes at the pinnacle of modern textile design alongside such recognized figures as Anni Albers and Florence Knoll Published in association with Cooper Hewitt Smithsonian Design Museum Exhibition Schedule Cooper Hewitt Smithsonian Design Museum July 7 2023 February 4 2024

Design History Beyond the Canon Jennifer Kaufmann-Buhler, Victoria Rose Pass, Christopher Wilson, 2019-02-07 Design History Beyond the Canon subverts hierarchies of taste which have dominated traditional narratives of design history The book explores a diverse selection of objects spaces and media ranging from high design to mass produced and mass marketed objects as well as counter cultural and sub cultural material The authors research highlights the often marginalised role of gender and racial identity in the production and consumption of design the politics which underpins design practice and the role of designed objects as pathways of nostalgia and cultural memory While focused primarily on North American examples from the early 20th century onwards this collection also features essays examining European and Soviet design history as well as the influence of Asia and Africa on Western design practice The book is organised in three thematic sections Consumers Intermediaries and Designers The first section analyses a range of designed objects and spaces through the experiences and perspectives of users The second section considers intermediaries from both technology and cultural industries as well as the hidden labour within the design process itself The final section focuses on designers from multiple design disciplines including high fashion industrial design interior design graphic design and design history pedagogy The essays in all three sections utilise different research methods and a wide range of theoretical approaches including feminist theory critical race theory spatial theory material culture studies science and technology studies and art history Design History Beyond the Canon brings together the most recent research which stretches beyond the traditional canon and looks to interdisciplinary methodologies to better understand the practice and consumption of design
