

LANGUAGE GUIDELINES

International Association
for Suicide Prevention

Certain language can be problematic when discussing suicide. The language guide below provides some examples of problematic language and suggested safer alternatives. These language guidelines aim to reduce risk of harm while increasing awareness and understanding of suicide and its complexities.

PROBLEMATIC

'committed suicide' or 'commit suicide'

'unsuccessful suicide' or 'failed suicide'

'successful suicide attempt'

'suicide victim'

PREFERRED

'died by suicide' or 'took their own life' or
'suicide death'

'suicide attempt' or 'non-fatal suicide attempt'

'A fatal suicide attempt'

'Those who die by suicide'

Avoid sharing details of suicide method and location

Research shows that public communication that includes descriptions of suicide method or location has been associated with increased rates of suicide behaviour and imitation of the suicide method/location.

PROBLEMATIC

Detail about method or location of suicide

Images that show method or location of a suicide

PREFERRED

No details of method or location. If needed, use general terms instead of specific details.

No photos, illustrations, diagrams or video that show suicide method or location.

Pailibo Language Guide Tapoli Badu,1994 The Sino-Tibetan Languages Graham Thurgood,Randy J. LaPolla,2016-12-08 There are more native speakers of Sino Tibetan languages than of any other language family in the world Our records of these languages are among the oldest for any human language and the amount of active research on them has multiplied in the last few decades Now in its second edition and fully updated to include new research The Sino Tibetan Languages includes overview articles on individual languages with an emphasis on the less commonly described languages as well as descriptions and comments on the subgroups in which they occur There are overviews of the whole family on genetic classification and language contact syntax and morphology and also on word order typology There are also more detailed overview articles on the phonology morphosyntax and writing system of just the Sinitic side of the family Supplementing these overviews are articles on Shanghainese Cantonese and Mandarin dialects Tibeto Burman is reviewed by genetic or geographical sub group with overview articles on some of the major groups and areas and there are also detailed descriptions of 41 individual Tibeto Burman languages written by world experts in the field Designed for students and researchers of Asian languages The Sino Tibetan Languages is a detailed overview of the field This book is invaluable to language students experts requiring concise but thorough information on related languages and researchers working in historical typological and comparative linguistics Resarun ,2000 Past Human Migrations in East Asia Alicia Sanchez-Mazas,Roger Blench,Malcolm D. Ross,Ilia Peiros,Marie Lin,2008-07-25 The study of the prehistory of East Asia is developing very rapidly In uncovering the story of the flows of human migration that constituted the peopling of East Asia there exists widespread debate about the nature of evidence and the tools for correlating results from different disciplines Drawing upon the latest evidence in genetics linguistics and archaeology this exciting new book examines the history of the peopling of East Asia and investigates the ways in which we can detect migration and its different markers in these fields of inquiry Results from different academic disciplines are compared and reinterpreted in the light of evidence from others to attempt to try and generate consensus on methodology Taking a broad geographical focus the book also draws attention to the roles of minority peoples hitherto underplayed in accounts of the region s prehistory such as the Austronesian Tai Kadai and Altaic speakers whose contribution to the regional culture is now becoming accepted Past Human Migrations in East Asia presents a full picture of the latest research on the peopling of East Asia and will be of interest to scholars of all disciplines working on the reconstruction of the peopling of East and North East Asia Bibliographic Guide to Government Publications New York Public Library.
