Painted Poems By Patrick Hayman:

Strangers Arrive Leonard Bell, 2017-11-17 None of us had the faintest idea where we were going but during 1938-39 the town Christchurch was made strangely interesting for anyone like myself with the scattered arrival of the refugees. All at once there were people among us who were actually from Vienna or Chemnitz or Berlin who knew the work of Schoenberg and Gropius. Anthony Alpers 1985 From the 1930s through the 1950s a substantial number of forced migrants, refugees from Nazism, displaced people after World War II and escapees from Communist countries arrived in New Zealand from Europe. Among them were an extraordinary group of artists and writers, photographers and architects whose European modernism radically reshaped the arts in this country. In words and pictures Strangers Arrive tells their story. Ranging across the arts from photographer Irene Koppel to art dealer and printmaker Kees Hos, architect Imric Porsolt to writer Antigone Kefala, Leonard Bell takes us inside New Zealand's bookstores and coffeehouses, studios and galleries to introduce us to a compelling body of artistic work. He asks key questions: How were migrants received by New Zealanders? How did displacement and settlement in New Zealand transform their work? How did the arrival of European modernists intersect with the burgeoning nationalist movement in the arts in New Zealand? Strangers Arrive introduces us to a talented group of aliens who were critical catalysts for change in New Zealand culture.

St. Ives, 1939-64, 1996 In 1884 Whistler and Sickert stayed in the remote Cornish fishing village of St Ives. From that time onwards it has been the inspiration and home of many notable painters. The 1985 exhibition at the Tate Gallery focused on the years 1939-64, the era of Wallis Nicholson, Hepworth, Lanyon, Wynter Leach, Heron, Frost and Gabo, to name but a few of the 28 artists represented. It reawakened an interest in St Ives which led to the founding of the Tate Gallery St Ives eight years later. The biographical notes, exhibition histories and bibliographies on each of the artists have been fully updated for the second edition.
