Pakistanfailure In National Integration:

Pakistan Rounaq Jahan,1995-05-01 This study was widely acclaimed as the first definitive analysis of the disintegration of Pakistan and the birth of Bangladesh It presents a scholarly explanation of why the policies of the Pakistani ruling elites especially the policies and institutional innovations of the Ayub regime 1958 1968 which often seemed so promising to observers abroad were in fact the prelude to the break up of Pakistan The study shows that by emphasizing state building and economic growth and de emphasizing nation building and development of political institutions the Ayub regime created a crisis in political management The Pakistani ruling elites persistent refusal to allow democratic political institutions to function resulted in the exclusion of Bengalis from the national decision making process The denial of their just claims led Bengalis to fight for autonomy initially and ultimately for independence The book first published in 1972 by Columbia University Press is being reprinted as part of UPL s Road to Bangladesh series It will be of use to the new generation of readers to refresh memories about the failed policies and politics of the Pakistani ruling elites and the vision of democratic and secular politics for which the nationalist struggle was waged in Bangladesh

Pakistan's Ethnic Tensions Mehtab Ali Shah,2025-12-10 This book studies the ethnic tensions in Pakistan and their repercussions on its territorial integrity and stability of the multi ethnic and pivotal state located at the trijunction of South Asia South West Asia and Central Asia It analyses the causes of the emergence of the ethnic tensions in Pakistan since its inception and their likely course in the future It demonstrates how the lack of proper representation from different ethnic groups in the decision making processes of the country has had catastrophic consequences in the nation s past and present The book will be highly valuable to scholars researchers and students of International Relations Pakistan Studies Defence Studies South Asian Politics and Ethnic Studies who are interested in the complexities of Pakistan ethnic problems

Electoral Corruption in Bangladesh Muhammad

Akhter,2017-11-30 This title was first published in 2001 Rigging elections in favour of those in power has become a common practice in Bangladesh Muhammad Yeahia Akhter focuses on the significance of elections in this ostensibly democratic state and portrays how electoral corruption has damaged the process of democratic consolidation The author reveals the failure of both civilian and military governments to obtain democratic legitimacy and or credibility through free and fair elections The study examines the relatively democratic but largely non transparent nature of electioneering under non partisan caretaker governments The study provides a source of understanding of fair electoral process for the politicians and electoral officials in Bangladesh and other democratizing polities It provides valuable information to the policy makers and practitioners in order to reform the electoral process in Bangladesh and in other similar countries

Nation and National Identity in South Asia S. L. Sharma,T. K. Oommen,2000 This Book Brings Together Papers By Leading Sociologists On The Problem Of Nation And National Identity In South Asia The Book Makes Important Conceptual Distinctions Between Nation State Territory And

Region It Also Attempts To Understand The Rise Of The State And Civil Society Over Time It Includes Papers On Gender And Caste In The Nation State And Also Includes Papers On National Identity In Sri Lanka And Pakistan     The Causes of the Bangladesh War Iain Cochrane,2009-12-29 An enquiry into the causes of the Bangladesh War     Contemporary Pakistan Veena Kukreja,2003-02-24 Veena Kukreja provides a rare reasoned analysis of the political processes at work in contemporary Pakistan and an objective understanding of the problems and crises confronting the country The author points out that for 25 out of the 53 years of its existence the military has been the arbiter of Pakistan's destiny The military she maintains regards its dominance of Pakistani politics not only as a right but as a duty As a result state security has taken precedence over the need to create participatory political processes and institutions The book points out that the terrorist attacks of 11 September 2001 and the resulting US offensive in Afghanistan has put the military regime in Islamabad in a tight spot Caught between unyielding ulemas a faltering economy and American pressure to demolish militant networks in Pakistan these recent developments combined with the dangerous cleavage within Pakistani society could well push that country into another bout of instability and even anarchy The situation is made more complex by the nexus between terrorism and drugs     The Politics of Cultural Pluralism Crawford Young,1979     India's National Security Dilemma Rajpal Budania,2001     A History of Pakistan and Its Origins Christophe Jaffrelot,2002 A History of Pakistan and its Origins is a comprehensive detailed and fully up to date study of one of the most diverse volatile and strategically significant countries in the world today Born in turmoil barely half a century ago Pakistan seems to be in an interminable pursuit of its own identity and at the same time finds itself a pivotal player in world politics Its short existence has witnessed much four coups d'tat the rise of Islam as a power tensions between ethnic religious and separatist movements the Kashmir conflict and the near constant war footing with India This text charts half a century of nation building in Pakistan while at the same time placing the country within the context of its relations with the outside world     Politics of Regionalism in Pakistan Surendra Singh,2003     Pakistan's National Security Problems Farida Jabin Aziz,1984     Pakistan, Dilemmas of a Developing State Pandav Nayak,1985     Pakistan, Its Politics and Bureaucracy Mustafa Chowdhury,1988     The Destruction of Pakistan's Democracy Allen McGrath,1996 In 1947 Pakistan came into existence as a parliamentary democracy In 1954 that government was dissolved and the path opened for the military rule which has characterized much of Pakistan's history The political forces of Islam did not initiate these events Rather the catalyst was the national legislature's successful completion of the first new constitution since independence a constitution which apportioned legislative power between East and West Pakistan introduced guaranteed rights for citizens and had earned the support of the Islamic leadership Governor General Ghulam Mohammad led a small group of West Pakistan officials trained in the autocratic bureaucracy of British India who disliked both democracy and the influence of Islam in politics He dissolved the legislature and suppressed the constitution actions approved by the Supreme Court which he controlled So successful was this quiet revolution that the very existence of the constitution has been forgotten by the public and overlooked by historians      Problematics of Nationalism in Bangladesh Burhanuddin Khan Jahangir,1986      Political Demography of the Emergence of Bangladesh A. K. M. Nurun Nabi,Parameswara Krishnan,1990 This document discusses how regional differences in the ingredients of national integration along with the West Pakistani domination and neo colonial exploitation led to the Bengali nationalist movements in East Pakistan culminating in the emergence of Bangladesh      Contemporary Pakistan Manzooruddin Ahmed,1980
