School Library Journal ,2003      Críticas ,2003      Using Technologies for Creative-Text Translation James Luke Hadley,Kristiina Taivalkoski-Shilov,Carlos S. C. Teixeira,Antonio Toral,2022-08-11 This collection reflects on the state of the art of research into the use of translation technologies in the translation of creative texts encompassing literary texts but also extending beyond to cultural texts and charts their development and paths for further research Bringing together perspectives from scholars across the discipline the book considers recent trends and developments in technology that have spurred growing interest in the use of computer aided translation CAT and machine translation MT tools in literary translation Chapters examine the relationships between translators and these tools the extent to which they already use such technologies the challenges they face and prevailing attitudes towards these tools as well as the ethical implications of such technologies in translation practice The volume gives special focus to drawing on examples with and beyond traditional literary genres to look to these technologies use in working with the larger group of creative texts setting the stage for many future research opportunities The book will be of particular interest to students and scholars in translation studies especially those with an interest in literary translation translation technology translation practice and translation ethics Chapters 2 3 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com>      City Fictions Amanda Holmes,2007 Using concepts from urban and cultural studies City Fictions examines the representation of the city in the works of five important late twentieth century Spanish American authors Octavio Paz Julio Cortazar Christina Peri Rossi Diamela Eltit and Carlos Monsavaís While each of these authors is influenced at least partially by a specific Spanish American city be it Mexico City Buenos Aires Montevideo or Santiago the element that brings them together is the way in which the city is fictionalized in their work they all equate both language and the body with urban space In these metaphors language breaks down and the body disintegrates creating a disturbing picture of violent decline The poetry of Paz associates the urban surroundings with dissolving sentences and desensitized fingertips for Cortazar characters walking through cities are seen as both creating and unraveling written texts      The Spanish Lexicon of Baseball John M. Chaston,Robert N. Smead,2022-11-28 The Spanish Lexicon of Baseball Semantics Style and Terminology draws on nearly 6 000 published MLB game summaries to explore the contours of baseball terminology in Spanish Organized in a logical sequence that corresponds to various aspects of baseball field of play player positions getting on base types and modes of hits scoring runs batted in umpire involvement and calls pitching and defense the work combines narrative style and illustrative examples with keen lexical analysis The result is an entertaining and informative volume that is neither folksy nor linguistically overcomplicated      Post-Colonial Literatures Deborah L. Madsen,1999-06-20 The postcolonial literary canon remains comprised of privileged national and regional texts The English language literatures of Africa India Canada Australia New Zealand Southeast Asia and the Caribbean clearly emerged from an earlier model of Commonwealth literature Post Colonial Literatures examines the development of this body of writing and is the first such study to expand the paradigm to accommodate the literatures of the colonised peoples of North America The authors engage with the major debates within existing postcolonial studies addressing issues such as hybridity subaltern voices decolonisation multiculturalism and border cultures Subjects covered include Fred D Aguiar Merle Collins and Toni Morrison Native Canadian writing and US Canadian literary relations writings of the Australian Aboriginals women writers in Zimbabwe and the relationship between black and Hispanic discourses of America

Linguistic Approaches To Hispanic Literature Frank Nuessel,2000-09 Translating Change Ann Pattison,Stella Cragie,2022-03-30 Translating Change explores and analyses the impact of changes in society culture and language on the translation and interpreting process and product It looks at how social attitudes behaviours and values change over time how languages respond to these changes how these changes are reflected in the processing and production of translations and how technological change and economic uncertainty in the wake of events such as the COVID 19 pandemic and Brexit affect the translation market The authors examine trends in language change in English French German Italian and Spanish The highly topical approach to social cultural and language change is predominantly synchronic and pragmatic based on tracking and analysing language changes and trends as they have developed and continue to do so This is combined with an innovative section on developing transferable translation related skills including writing and rewriting editing abstracting transcreation and summary writing in view of a perceived need to expand the skills portfolio of translators in a changing market and at the same time to maximise translation quality Each chapter features Pause for Thought activity boxes to encourage active reader participation or reflection With exercises discussion questions guided further reading throughout and a glossary of key terms this innovative textbook is key reading for both students and translators or interpreters in training and in practice
