Indispensable to anyone interested in understanding how suspense thrillers work and what they mean this book provides insightful analysis of hundreds of memorable films while at the same time working as a virtual how to manual for anyone trying to write a Hitchcock like thriller. The first section of the book is primarily theoretical. It offers a bibliographical survey and then explains why we so profoundly enjoy these suspenseful films of murder and intrigue. To what extent does the suspense thriller represent a symbolic and vicarious experience of danger A chapter on Suspense That Makes the Spectator Take a Breath explores the crucial narrative concept of suspense and relates it to the psychological mechanisms of anxiety incited in the spectator Why do we like to be scared A final theoretical chapter offers a dynamic definition of the suspense thriller derived in part from Edgar Allan Poe and based primarily on content analysis The second section of the book is more of an historical survey and devotes one chapter to each of the suspense thriller s primary sub genres These chapters provide close readings of more than 150 major films and detailed analysis of the suspense thriller s conventions themes and recurrent iconography Sub genres include The Postman Always Rings Twice Body Heat The Manchurian Candidate The China Syndrome Missing The Passenger Spellbound Obsession Marathon Man and Blue Velvet A final chapter explores areas for further research and offers concluding insights
