The Oxford Handbook of Medieval Christianity John Arnold, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of Medieval Christianity takes as its subject the beliefs practices and institutions of the Christian Church between 400 and 1500AD It addresses topics ranging from early medieval monasticism to late medieval mysticism from the material wealth of the Church to the spiritual exercises through which certain believers might attempt to improve their souls Each chapter tells a story but seeks also to ask how and why Christianity took particular forms at particular moments in history paying attention to both the spiritual and otherwordly aspects of religion and the material and political contexts in which they were often embedded This Handbook is a landmark academic collection that presents cutting edge interpretive perspectives on medieval religion for a wide academic audience drawing together thirty key scholars in the field from the United States the UK and Europe Notably the Handbook is arranged thematically and focusses on an analytical rather than narrative approach seeking to demonstrate the variety change and complexity of religion throughout this long period and the numerous different ways in which modern scholarship can approach it While providing a very wide ranging view of the subject it also offers an important agenda for further study in the field

Women Writing Back / Writing Women Back Anke Gilleir, Alicia A. Montoya, Suzanna van Dijk, 2010 Privileging both a transnational and a sociological approach this volume explores the position of women in the early modern literary field emphasising the international scope of their literature and examining their historical position influence network and dialogues Acute Melancholia and Other Essays Amy Hollywood, 2016-03-15 Acute Melancholia and Other Essays deploys spirited and progressive approaches to the study of Christian mysticism and the philosophy of religion Ideal for novices and experienced scholars alike the volume makes a forceful case for thinking about religion as both belief and practice in which traditions marked by change are passed down through generations laying the groundwork for their own critique Through a provocative integration of medieval sources and texts by Jacques Derrida Judith Butler Talal Asad and Dipesh Chakrabarty this book redefines what it means to engage critically with history and those embedded within it

Women Writing Back / Writing Women Back, 2010-05-25 Interest in early modern women writers is on the rise However familiarity with their works varies greatly from one country to another and resources to assess their historical significance remain insufficient Yet empirical evidence suggests that women writers who are no longer well known today played surprisingly varied roles in the literary field of early modern Europe The papers collected in this volume address early modern female authorship from the late Middle Ages to the end of the eighteenth century ranging geographically from Portugal to Russia and from Italy to Denmark In particular they focus on three themes the creation of female spaces or communities women's appropriation of existing or developing literary genres and transnational perspectives on early modern women's writings Contributors include Vanda Anastasio Bernadette Andrea Mónica Bolufer Philiep Bosscher Hans Bots Kathleen Garay Nina Geerdink Perry Gethner Elena Gretchanaia Ineke Janse Madeleine Jeay Anne Marie Mai Christine Mongenot Meredith Ray Ina Schabert and Lynn Lara Westwater The Modulated Scream Esther Cohen, 2009 This book provides an integral readable account of changing attitudes toward pain in late medieval Europe Since pain itself cannot be known the book looks at pain by chronicling what people wrote about it and what they did with and about that A

A History of Christian Conversion David W. Kling, 2020-05-05 In this first in depth and wide ranging history of Christian conversion David Kling examines the dynamic of turning to the Christian faith by individuals families and people groups Global in reach and engaging recent methods and theories in conversion studies the narrative progresses from early Christian beginnings in the Roman world to Christianity's expansion into Europe the Americas China India and Africa Although conversion is often associated with a particular strand of modern Christianity evangelical and a particular type of experience sudden overwhelming when examined over two millennia it emerges as a phenomenon far more complex than any one dimensional profile would suggest The Presence of God: The flowering of mysticism: men and women in the new mysticism (1200-1350) Bernard McGinn, 1991

The Flowering of Mysticism Bernard McGinn, 1998 The foundations of mysticism series Women in the Middle Ages: A-J Katharina M. Wilson, Nadia Margolis, 2004 The encyclopedia covers the myriad experiences and contributions of women in the medieval world Sensual Encounters Erika Lauren Lindgren, 2009 Specifically she focuses on the Dominican nuns and lay sisters of southern Germany in the thirteenth and early fourteenth centuries Particularly the way in which these women controlled and interpreted their surroundings and incorporated them into their spiritual and devotional practices Book Jacket Mystics Quarterly, 2009

The Presence of God: The presence of God : a history of western christian mysticism Bernard McGinn, 1991 A Companion to Middle High German Literature to the 14th Century Francis G. Gentry, 2002 This volume is a guide to medieval German literature from its beginnings in the eighth century to the fourteenth century It will escort the motivated student and colleague with interest in the European Middle Ages but no expertise in older German languages The chapter authors all internationally known scholars were given the freedom to arrange their chapters as they felt most appropriate including the question of the terminus ad quem Chapters deal either with a chronological period e.g. 13th century or with specific genres eg drama In addition chapters both on the historical epoch and on the development of the German language in the medieval period have been included In general historical and cultural topics play an important role in each chapter Cistercian Studies Quarterly, 1998

The Journal of Medieval and Early Modern Studies, 1999 The Scourge and the Cross David

Fletcher Tinsley,2010 Harsh asceticism including ritual self mortification remains one of the most troubling and least understood aspects of monastic life in the Later Middle Ages The nuns whose austere lives are celebrated in spiritual biographies and autobiographies in the Order of Preachers were long dismissed by traditional scholars as hysterics or inferior mimics of true mysticism Some recent feminist studies either gloss over asceticism or portray its practitioners as traumatized victims of patriarchal oppression Traditionalists and progressives seem to agree extreme asceticism is best understood as pathetic or even pathological behavior David Tinsley seeks to temper this view by exploring late medieval asceticism on its own terms Building on the work of Caroline Walker Bynum Peter Dinzelbacher and Jeffrey Hamburger Tinsley analyzes the ascetic mentalities of Dominican convent culture in the 14th century including the sources the nuns read the famous ascetics they venerated and their most common rituals and practices The key question is how these nuns could see self imposed suffering as so crucial to shaping the questing soul s journey to God Women Writing Women's Lives Rebecca L. R. Garber,1999 Celtic Spirituality Oliver Davies,Thomas O'Loughlin,1999 This volume offers translations of numerous texts from the Celtic tradition from the 6th through the 13th centuries in a cross section of genres and forms including saints lives monastic texts poetry devotional texts liturgical texts apocrypha exegetical texts and theological treatises The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,1995
