Extracts from the Life James Ramsay MacDonald, The Women in the Room Nan Sloane,2018-09-30 In February 1900 a group of men representing trade unionists socialists Fabians and Marxists gathered in London to make another attempt at establishing an organisation capable of getting working class men elected to Parliament The body they set up was the Labour Representation Committee six years later when 29 of its candidates were elected to the House of Commons it changed its name to the Labour Party No women took part in that first meeting but several watched from the public gallery Amongst them was Isabella Ford an active socialist and trade unionist who would have been familiar to most of the men assembled below She had been asked by her friend Millicent Fawcett to attend and report back on what happened Millicent was the President of the National Union of Women s Suffrage Societies and Isabella had been involved with the suffrage movement for a long time A few years later she would become the first woman to speak at a Labour Party conference moving a resolution on votes for women but at the Party s inception in 1900 she and every other woman in the hall was silent Throughout Labour s history even in its earliest years women were present in the room but they were not always recorded or remembered They came from many different backgrounds and they worked for the causes they believed in as organisers campaigners negotiators polemicists public speakers and leaders They took on the vested interests of their time sometimes they won Yet the vast majority of them have been forgotten by the Labour movement that they helped to found Even Margaret Bondfield who became Britain s first woman cabinet minister often barely merits a footnote Women made real and substantial contributions to Labour s earliest years and had a significant impact on the Party s ability to attract and maintain women s votes after World War I In addition to Margaret and Isabella in many of the rooms in which the Labour Party found its feet remarkable women wait to be rediscovered This book tells their story Ramsay Macdonald Kevin Morgan,2006-11-01 The Labour party s first Prime Minister Christian and Jewish Women in Britain, 1880-1940 Anne Summers,2016-12-21 This book offers an entirely new contribution to the history of multiculturalism in Britain 1880 1940 It shows how friendship and co operation between Christian and Jewish women changed lives and as the Second World War approached actually saved them The networks and relationships explored include the thousand plus women from every district in Manchester who combined to send a letter of sympathy to the Frenchwoman at the heart of the Dreyfus Affair the religious leagues for women s suffrage who initiated the first interfaith campaigning movement in British history the collaborations often problematic on refugee relief in the 1930s the close ties between the founder of Liberal Judaism in Britain and the wife of the leader of the Labour Party between the wealthy leader of the Zionist women s movement and a passionate socialist woman MP A great variety of sources are thoughtfully interrogated and concluding remarks address some of the social concerns of the present century Report of the Minister of Education ,1921 The Yale Review George Park Fisher,George Burton Adams, Henry Walcott Farnam,Arthur Twining Hadley,John Christopher Schwab,William Fremont Blackman,Edward Gaylord Bourne,Irving Fisher, Henry Crosby Emery,Wilbur Lucius Cross,1925 Wisconsin Library Bulletin ,1924 General Catalogue of the Library of the Bombay Branch of the Royal Asiatic Society: Authors Bombay Branch of the Royal Asiatic Society.
