Margaret Mead Margaret Mead,1979    Some Personal Views Margaret Mead,1979    Margaret Mead, the Anthropologist in America Erika Bourguignon,1986    Letter to the World Susan Ware,1998 In the tradition of Composing a Life and Writing a Woman's Life comes this look at the intimate and public lives of seven strong and vibrant women Eleanor Roosevelt Dorothy Thompson Margaret Mead Katharine Hepburn Babe Didrikson Zaharias Martha Graham and Marian Anderson Photos    Reading Benedict / Reading Mead Dolores Janiewski,Lois W. Banner,2004 Publisher Description    Color in the Classroom Zoe Burkholder,2011-10-05 Between the turn of the twentieth century and the Brown v Board of Education decision in 1954 the way that American schools taught about race changed dramatically This transformation was engineered by the nation's most prominent anthropologists including Franz Boas Ruth Benedict and Margaret Mead during World War II Inspired by scientific racism in Nazi Germany these activist scholars decided that the best way to fight racial prejudice was to teach what they saw as the truth about race in the institution that had the power to do the most good American schools Anthropologists created lesson plans lectures courses and pamphlets designed to revise what they called the race concept in American education They believed that if teachers presented race in scientific and egalitarian terms conveying human diversity as learned habits of culture rather than innate characteristics American citizens would become less racist Although nearly forgotten today this educational reform movement represents an important component of early civil rights activism that emerged alongside the domestic and global tensions of wartime Drawing on hundreds of first hand accounts written by teachers nationwide Zo Burkholder traces the influence of this anthropological activism on the way that teachers understood spoke and taught about race She explains how and why teachers readily understood certain theoretical concepts such as the division of race into three main categories while they struggled to make sense of more complex models of cultural diversity and structural inequality As they translated theories into practice teachers crafted an educational discourse on race that differed significantly from the definition of race produced by scientists at mid century Schoolteachers and their approach to race were put into the spotlight with the Brown v Board of Education case but the belief that racially integrated schools would eradicate racism in the next generation and eliminate the need for discussion of racial inequality long predicated this Discussions of race in the classroom were silenced during the early Cold War until a new generation of antiracist multicultural educators emerged in the 1970s    Of Boys and Men Richard V. Reeves,2022-11-27 The Book that Sparked a National Conversation A Barack Obama 2024 Summer Reading Selection An Economist Best Book of 2022 A New Yorker Best Book of 2022 Boys and men are struggling Profound economic and social changes of recent decades have many losing ground in the classroom the workplace and in the family While the lives of women have changed the lives of many men have remained the same or even worsened In this widely praised book Richard Reeves father of three sons a journalist and now the president of the American Institute for Boys and Men tackles the complex and urgent crisis of boyhood and manhood He argues that our attitudes our institutions and our laws have failed to keep up Conservative and progressive politicians mired in their own ideological warfare fail to provide thoughtful solutions Reeves looks at the structural challenges that face boys and men and offers fresh and innovative solutions that turn the page on the corrosive narrative that plagues this issue Of Boys and Men argues that helping the other half of society does not mean giving up on the ideal of gender equality Margaret Mead Aimee Hess,2007 Examines the life of pioneering anthropologist Margaret Mead discussing her youth and schooling her studies at Barnard College her first visit to Samoa in 1925 and her fieldwork techniques Includes historical photographs The Biography Book Daniel S. commemorated her death with a ceremony befitting a great leader      The Dramatic Vision of August Wilson Sandra Garrett Shannon,1995 In The Dramatic Vision of August Wilson Sandra Shannon follows the playwright s path through each decade From the outset she considers how he uses poetry the blues Romare Bearden s art and other cultural artifacts to lead him to imagined sites of pain and resignation healing and renewal in the collective memory of black America It is in these places of defeat and victory Shannon demonstrates that Wilson creates drama as he excavates examines and reclaims the past Although Wilson diverts attention away from factual details and focuses on the human costs of family dislocation chronic unemployment or cultural alienation Shannon illustrates how fully the plays are grounded in credible historical contexts from slavery and Emancipation to the aftermath of World War II the 1960s and the Vietnam War Moreover she identifies and analyzes the themes that recur in some plays and branch off in new directions in others including the dislocations that attended black migration to the North and communication gaps between black men and women As she examines each of the plays in Wilson s dramatic history of the African American experience Shannon conveys the broad range of his dramatic vision BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved      Handle with Care S.
