Prose works examined include Bernice Morgan s best selling novel Random Passage short stories by Helen Porter and Governor General s award winner Joan Clark as well as poetry by Mi kmaq Elder Rita Joe and People s Poet Maxine Tynes and the adult work of well known children s author Sheree Fitch Fuller demonstrates how these writers overturn regional stereotypes to present a complex and intriguing portrait of women s lives in Canada s most eastern provinces Diary of a Novel Eugenia Price,2021-08-17 This is only one of the many revelations in Eugenia Price s intimate account of the many months she spent sorting through voluminous historical research and writing Margaret s Story the third novel in her Florida trilogy Published as a companion to the novel this journal offers a fascinating view of the author at work as the novel developed week by week Here for the sharing is her excitement as her story s characters emerge living breathing people who become for the duration more real to her than those who are part of her day to day existence Here too is her joy on good writing days her anxiety in times of creative uncertainty her frustrations at unavoidable interruptions and her courage in resisting discouragement and discomfort through most of this period she was plagued with vertigo caused by labyrinthitis From time to time she isolated herself in a St Augustine motel to work undisturbed but when at home on St Simons Island she managed to continue with the novel and be at the same time a caring friends to everyone who needed her In Diary of a Novel the reader will encounter many of the friends met in St Simons Memoir and make with the author some new friends as well Most of all this behind the scenes narrative will give a new dimension to the experience of reading the novel Margaret s Story A horrid girl, by the author of 'Margaret's engagement', &c Catherine Simpson Wynne,1876 Margaret's Story Margaret Horst Breneman,1993 Glenwood Anna Katharine Whiting,1907 Coleridge and Wordsworth Paul Magnuson,2014-07-14 Paul Magnuson contends that the relationship between Coleridge s and Wordsworth s poetry is so complex that a new criticism is required to trace its intricacies This book demonstrates that their poems may be read as parts of a single evolving whole a dialogue in which the works of one are responses to and rewritings of those of the other Professor Magnuson discloses this dialogue as a joint canon or sequence which includes the complete early versions of poems as well as fragments canceled drafts and poems in progress He further shows that this sequence is based on lyric structure the relations among its poems and fragments resemble those among stanzas in an ode and individual poems take their significance from their surrounding contexts in the dialogue Coleridge s and Wordsworth s poetic conversation arose from their recognition that their themes and styles were similar There were as one of Coleridge s friends said fears of amalgamation and it was actually from their failed attempts to collaborate on individual works that their dialogue began The first chapter of the book elaborates a dialogic methodology and the following chapters discuss the dialogic relationship between Wordsworth's Salisbury Plain poems and The Ancient Mariner The Ruined Cottage and Coleridge's Christabel Coleridge's Conversation Poems and Wordsworth's Tintern Abbey Wordsworth's Goslar poetry of 1798 Home at Grasmere and Lyrical Ballads 1800 and the dejection dialogue of 1802 Originally published in 1988 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
