Marhynie Red:

Red Abbey Linda Guyan, 2015-10-15 Nina Riley's life revolves around serial killers. An avid researcher and lecturer on these predators, she's drawn to a prolific one called the Hunter who has eluded capture for more than thirty years. When she's not studying murderers and talking about them, Nina enjoys her quiet life in the pretty Northern California town of Abbey Glen. One night, Nina's quiet life changes when her boyfriend Richard Devlin shows his violent side. Soon after, a mysterious package filled with shocking surprises shows up on her doorstep. Nina Riley's life has suddenly become mysterious, frightening, and filled with unanswered questions. What is the secret organization called the Council? Who is the Hunter, and does he live in Abbey Glen? What goes on at the Devlin Ranch at the old monastery called Red Abbey? Nina doesn't know that Abbey Glen is hiding many more secrets, and that they are all connected to Red Abbey and to her. Until it's too late. A Color and the Moving Image Simon Brown, Sarah Street, Liz Watkins, 2013-10-28 This new AFI Film Reader is the first comprehensive collection of original essays on the use of color in film. Contributors from diverse film studies backgrounds consider the importance of color throughout the history of the medium, assessing not only the theoretical implications of color on the screen but also the ways in which developments in cinematographic technologies transformed the aesthetics of color and the nature of film archiving and restoration. Color and the Moving Image includes new writing on key directors whose work is already associated with color, such as Hitchcock, Jarman, and Sirk, as well as others whose use of color has not yet been explored in such detail, including Eric Rohmer and the Coen Brothers. This volume is an excellent resource for a variety of film studies courses and the global film archiving community at large.

Film Narratology Peter Verstraten, 2009-01-01 In Film Narratology, Peter W. J. Verstraten makes film narratives his primary focus while noting the unexplored and essentially different narrative effects that film can produce with mise en scène, cinematography, and editing.

The Films of Sean Connery Lee Pfeiffer, Philip Lisa, 2001 For 40 years, Sean Connery has been among the world's most admired and popular actors. This edition is both an in-depth biography of this international superstar and a complete filmography with 400 photos, rare production stills, movie posters, and lobby cards. The American Short-horn Herd Book

Lewis Falley Allen, William T. Bailey, 1891 Boy Still Missing John Searles, 2009-10-13 It is June 1971. Dominick Pindle, a tenderhearted but aimless Massachusetts teenager, spends his nights driving around with his mother and dragging his wayward father out of bars. Late one evening, Dominick's search puts him face to face with his father's seductive mistress, Edie Kramer. Instantly, in lust, he begins a forbidden relationship with this beautiful, mysterious woman. Before long, though, their erotic entanglement leads to a shocking death and Dominick discovers that the mother he betrayed hid secrets as dark and destructive as his own. Charged with the exhilarating narrative pace of a thriller and set during a complicated and explosive era, Boy Still Missing is the critically acclaimed debut novel from John Searles. It renders a deeply affecting portrait of a boy whose passage into adulthood proves as complex and impassioned as the history that unfolds before his eyes. Wedding Survivor Julia London, 2005. Thrillseekers Anonymous is a members only adventure service that caters to the rich and famous. Now one of its founders is about to embark on the thrill ride of his life and take the kind of risk that can scare even a professional stuntman. Red Ink, 1995. Who's who in Thoroughbred Racing. V. II. Ned Welch, 1947. American Film Music William Darby, Jack Du Bois, 1999. From the neighborhood pianist of silent movie days to the synthesized effects and music video sequences of the 1980s, the great and not so great moments in film scoring. Scores from countless films from Birth of a Nation 1915 through Top Gun 1986 are painstakingly analyzed. How does the score relate to onscreen activity? How does it follow or depart from tradition? How does it represent the strengths and foibles of its composer? The book includes discussion of trend setting work such as Max Steiner's King Kong 1933, an early instance of music carrying a significant portion of onscreen action. Bernard Herrmann's Psycho 1960 with its unusual high scraping strings only support of the famous shower scene and Alex North's A Streetcar Named Desire 1951, the first essentially jazz oriented score as well as remarks on the work that followed within the resulting trends. Discussions are enhanced by musical reproductions of significant themes and motives. Chapters on 14 individual composers working largely within the United States are given perspective by summary chapters on the silent and early sound years, the decades 1930-1980 and the work of composers outside the United States. The Feathered World, 1929. Pure-bred Dogs, American Kennel Gazette, 1968-12. Holstein-Friesian Herd-book Holstein-Friesian Association of America, 1924. Hitchcock's Films Robin Wood, 1969. Our Boys and Girls Oliver Optic, 1869. People Like Ourselves Jacqueline Noll Zimmerman, 2003. Like the motion pictures it examines, this fascinating book offers both insight and entertainment. BOOK JACKET. American Red Polled Herd-Book, Containing a Record of All Red Polled Cattle in America, Approved... Under the By-laws... of the Red Polled Cattle Club of America, 1930. The Field Dog Stud Book, 1916. Cinema Great Directors Frank N. Magill, 1981. Surveys the film of ten well known directors offering essay reviews of 104 important English language films as they appear in the library edition. Magill's Survey of cinema 1980. Arrangement is by director allowing comparison of a variety of films by one filmmaker or contrast the work of several.
