Marilyn Me Sisters Rivals Friends:

Marilyn and Me Susan Strasberg, 1993-09-01 The daughter of acting teachers Lee and Paula Strasberg discusses her relationship with Marilyn Monroe when the screen idol came to New York to study with her parents An Actress Prepares Rosemary Malague, 2013-06-17 Every day thousands of women enter acting classes where most of them will receive some variation on the Stanislavsky based training that has now been taught in the U S for nearly ninety years Yet relatively little feminist consideration has been given to the experience of the student actress What happens to women in Method actor training An Actress Prepares is the first book to interrogate Method acting from a specifically feminist perspective Rose Malague addresses the Method not only with much needed critical distance but also the crucial insider s view of a trained actor Case studies examine the preeminent American teachers who popularized and transformed elements of Stanislavsky s System within the U S Strasberg Adler Meisner and Hagen by analyzing and comparing their related but distinctly different approaches This book confronts the sexism that still exists in actor training and exposes the gender biases embedded within the Method itself Its in depth examination of these Stanislavskian techniques seeks to reclaim Method acting from its patriarchal practices and to empower women who act I ve been waiting for someone to write this book for years a thorough going analysis and reconsideration of American approaches to Stanislavsky from a feminist perspective lively intelligent and engaging Phillip Zarrilli University of Exeter Theatre people of any gender will be transformed by Rose Malague s eye opening study An Actress Prepares This book will be useful to all scholars and practitioners determined to make gender equity central to how they hone their craft and their thinking Jill Dolan Princeton University American Monroe S. Paige Baty, 1995-08-15 A highly original work that is extremely important to the study of both culture and politics Demonstrating how the cultural icon of Marilyn Monroe provides the body politic in American mass mediated society Baty not only offers a provocative reading of the iconographic biographic cartographic and hagiographic modes in which Marilyn has been written by others but also gives us a novel theorization of how popular culture translates transforms and embodies the political sphere Vivian Sobchack author of The Address of the Eye Reborn on coffee cups T shirts and film footage in conspiracy theory biography and necrophilia the remembered fragments of Marilyn Monroe so Paige Baty shows make up cult objects of our imagined community American Monroe is endlessly revelatory not only about the meanings of Marilyn but also about the nature of the common culture of the United States Mike Rogin author of Ronald Reagan The Movie In this original imaginative and innovative book Paige Baty asks and answers important questions about U S political culture by examining many mass mediated memories of Marilyn Monroe Baty uses our continuing national obsession with Monroe s life and death as a means of exploring the ways in which languages of belonging dominate our mass mediated political landscape She explores how iconic representations personal biographies conspiracy theories and anxieties about death shape the symbolic economy of American politics into what she calls the post mortem condition This important inquiry about collective memory mass media and political culture starts with the life and the mass mediated memory of one celebrity but it builds into a fascinating and persuasive general discussion about the nature of knowledge and the social production of the individual self in a world where mass mediated images and icons form the core of our collective consciousness George Lipsitz author of Dangerous Crossroads Popular Music Postmodernism and the Poetics of Place If U S culture cannot forget Marilyn Monroe readers of American Monroe will not be able to forget Professor Baty s elegant and provocative arguments Elvis Presley and Marilyn Monroe are both representative figures in U S cultural politics While his death is repetitively denied Elvis s living clones endlessly populate hotel conventions and tabloids But it is Marilyn s dissected body and haunting story of suicide that proliferate in the undead spaces of U S mass mediated culture In American Monroe Baty writes a haunting kind of political theory Her project probes the profusion of meanings associated with a cultural figure who is at the heart of contemporary crises in representation American Monroe is a book about cultural memory as political practice it is a work to remember Donna Haraway author of Simians Cyborgs and Women The Reinvention of Nature Like a Natural Woman Kirsten Pullen, 2014-08-08 Bathing beauty Esther Williams bombshell Jane Russell exotic Carmen Miranda chanteuse Lena Horne and talk show fixture Zsa Zsa Gabor are rarely hailed as great actors or as naturalistic performers Those terms of praise are given to male stars like Marlon Brando and James Dean whose gritty dramas are seen as a departure from the glossy spectacles in which these stars appeared Like a Natural Woman challenges those assumptions revealing the skill and training that went into the work of these five actresses who employed naturalistic performance techniques both onscreen and off Bringing a fresh perspective to film history through the lens of performance studies Kirsten Pullen explores the ways in which these actresses who always appeared to be playing themselves responded to the naturalist notion that actors should create authentic characters by drawing from their own lives At the same time she examines how Hollywood presented these female stars as sex objects focusing on their spectacular bodies at the expense of believable characterization or narratives Pullen not only helps us appreciate what talented actresses these five women actually were but also reveals how they sought to express themselves and maintain agency even while meeting the demands of their directors studios families and fans to perform certain feminine roles Drawing from a rich collection of classic films publicity materials and studio archives Like a Natural Woman lets us take a new look at both Hollywood acting techniques and the performance of femininity itself

How Do We Know who We Are? Arnold M. Ludwig, 1997 Psychiatrist Ludwig weaves insights from in depth interviews with 21 biographers with observations from his own practice to investigate the mechanisms by which people construct identities He describes how biographers must impose a narrative structure on the mass of often contradictory information in much the same way therapists try to foster understanding and awareness in their patients He concludes by asserting that people can use the same methods to find meaning in their lives Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
