The Beckoning Lady Margery Allingham, 2023-04-28 Murder darkens the bright days of summer in an idyllic Suffolk village in an Albert Campion mystery that is simply unforgettable. A S Byatt Private detective Albert Campion's glorious summer in Pontisbright is blighted by death. Amidst the preparations for Minnie and Tonker Cassand's fabulous summer party a murder is discovered and it falls to Campion to unravel the intricate web of motives suspicion and deception. Danger is hardly unknown in this idyllic rural village but it is a less romantic peril than Campion faced on his first visit more than twenty years ago. My very favourite of the four Queens of Crime is Allingham. J K Rowling Margery Allingham has precious few peers and no superiors. The Sunday Times Allingham has that rare gift in a novelist the creation of characters so rich and so real that they stay with the reader forever. Sara Paretsky

The Mind Readers Margery Allingham, 2015-10-01 A mysterious invention causes mayhem in a coastal English village from my very favourite of the four Queens of Crime J K Rowling. The ancient hamlet of Saltey once the haunt of smugglers now hides a secret rich and mysterious enough to trap all who enter and someone in town is willing to terrorize murder and raise the very devil to keep that secret to themselves. When a transistor thought to be the key to telepathic communication is found Albert Campion is called to sort fact from fiction. But the device at the center of the mystery is in the possession of two schoolboys and whether they stole it or invented it there are others who will kill to get hold of it.
